

1. Huddle up! Team huddles were a good way for these two teams to recuperate after a hard game, also it was a good time to bond with your teammates. Every time the freshmen went into a huddle they would do their cheer, "Yee-Haw!"

2. Water Boy! While girls Laura Woolf, 10, Megan Miraglia, 10, Sachi Sunamoto, 10, and Hilary Bilnd, 10, wait for their turn to bat, they also stop for a water break.

Rounding third

Heading for home

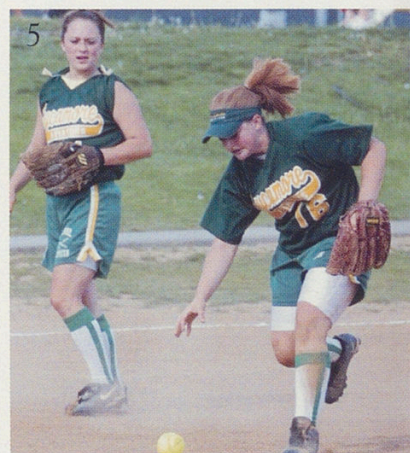

By Carly Mandel

Home Run! With her bat in hand, Kristen Polthaus, 9, was ready to lead her team with a home run! "Being an awesome player is good, but being a team player is even better, that is what we learned," said Polthaus.

2. Eyes on the ball. Rachel Myers, 9, concentrates on the ball and prepares to throw it to home. Her coach and teammates say she was a very dedicated player.

3. Fly Ball! Sarah Lapin, 9, caught a fly ball and stepped on the plate for a double play! Lapin played well at every game.

4. Wait it Out. Teammates waited around for their turn to bat. Some were nervous about the close game.

5. Double Play! As Kayse Burdett, 10, went for the ball, her teammate, Anni Alemagno, 10, always had her back. In this sport you can never have too many people going for the ball!

2. Practice Makes Perfect- As one plays, the other practices. Christa McDaniel, 10, was up at the plate as her teammate, Hilary Bilnd, 10, was behind her practicing for her turn.
