

1. Warm up time! A strong warm up before a game is key. Aleksandar Mijuskovic, 12, and Sonny Wolfe, 12, took an extra step up, but close behind were their teammates: Kasper Paur, 11, Curtis Jones, 11, Daniel Hiudt, 12, and Chris Grannen, 11. Practice makes perfect and it showed in this team's season.

2. Heads up! Communication is a key asset for a win in the game of volleyball. Talking with each other the team returns the ball back over the net.

3. Waiting on the sidelines is not always easy! Coach Stan Kaniecki and Assistant Coach Paul Melnick shouted plays out, in hopes to help the team. With their knowledge and experience of the game these coaches mended gaps in the team's skills level.

4. Over here! Andy Reed, 11, kept an eye her team. Daniel Hiudt, 12, waited anxiously for a pass and Kasper Paur, 11, took a quick breather. Everyone contributed in accomplishing the play.

1. Spiked it! Daniel Hiudt, 12, helped the team get a point with his awesome spike. Everyone has their special signature move and this was his.

2. Ready!!!! You must be aware of what is going on in volleyball. Daniel Hiudt, 12, David Pan, 12, and Curtis Jones, 11, were standing by and were prepared to pass, hit, and to get the ball over the net.

3. Team! Regrouping before every game and after every time-out strengthened and motivated the team. It helped build the teams' spirit as a whole, no matter what the score was.

"Work together as a team and things are done better," Sonny Wolfe, 12.
