

UNBELIEVABLE RECORD! The girls varsity lacrosse team had an amazing season. Starting out the season with a win against Olentangy 16-5 helped pave the way for the rest of the season.

Kelsey Dewald, 12 and Caitlin Gilbert, 11, had five goals, and Tiffany Shin, 12, had four goals and three assists. Working together, the team was able to continue their lead and win the game. Keeping that pace going, they were able to keep a great ranking of "undefeated" for many games to come.

This team had an amazing connection, not only with each other, but they also worked well with Coach Eddie Clark.

"It is definitely business on the field, but once we get off of the field he is a really cool guy," said Stephanie Maupin, 12.

Teamwork. Bailey Su, 11, passed the ball to her teammate. Su's great skill and smart play was a great contribution to the team.

Sprint! Poorvi Dala, 11, ran down the field to get back on defense.

This was the first girls lacrosse team in the city of Cincinnati to be in contention to be number one in the state! All the hard work and long practices paid off for these girls keeping a long winning streak this season.

"Being on this team has been one of the best experiences of my high school career. We work our butts off, have fun, and it shows," said Erin Ellingwood, 12.

The second game of the tournament against Olentangy the Lady Aves won 17-7.

Quarter! The team rushed back to the bench in between quarters.

Making history one game at a time

By Lauren Fox and Katie Loftspring

1. Finding the open man. Jamie Nesbit, 10, made a pass to her teammate. Teamwork is essential for success on the field.

2. I am open! Bailey Su, 11, called out to her teammates for a pass. Getting open and making smart passes ensured victory for the team each time.

"It is great being with the girls on this team, because they are always there for you and not only work hard themselves, but help you work harder too," Elizabeth Tremblay, 12.

"We all get along really well. We think a lot alike and can always joke about the same things. We have the same senses of humor," Kelsey Dewald, 12.

Good Game! The team came together after a long game. Team spirit is what led these girls to a successful season. Pasta parties, long bus rides, and loud cheering sections at games really helped the girls to come together.
