Annoying actions

One of my biggest pet peeves is when people stop in the middle of the hallways to talk and block the stairs.”
-Peter Crook, 11

Homework, people talking nonstop, friends that do not keep promises, people in cliques and rumors; all of these are examples of some people's pet peeves. People can get very annoyed by the simplest things that would not necessarily bother other people.

“When people scrape their nails against the chalkboard, it really makes me sick,” said Blair Higgins, 10.

Every individual person has their own idea of what their personal pet peeve is.

“It really bothers me when people constantly cuss and don't even realize that they are doing it,” said Helen Finkel, 9.

Other people take things personally when their pet peeve is committed.

“I hate it when people act really fake and hypocritical. It really annoys me when people act like that,” said Jennifer Konnerman, 9.

Everyone has some type of pet peeve. Pet peeves may be very different from one person to the next, but everyone has a pet peeve.
