"Starting our senior year together as a class was cool," Geoff Schwartz

The beginning of the end

1. Stacey Lowenstein, Blair Kuresman, Katie Hooper and Liz Tracy smiled big at 7:20 in the morning. 2. Old friends Jennifer Sosna and Aaron Morris catch up after the long summer over a bagel. 3. Checking out the senior baby pictures Karen Bennett and Sarah Lesan. The senior moms prepared these posters for the seniors which gave them a feeling of how far they have come over the years. "Looking at the baby pictures put into perspective how much we have all changed over the years and how much we will continue to grow," said Jane Moksins.

Stop Watch: 6:30

6:30: Parents arrived and started preparing for the breakfast. Tables of senior baby pictures led the way to tables of juice, bagels and donuts.

6:45: Senior Breakfast began. The senior early birds got the first shot at all the food. "I thought the breakfast was an exciting way to kick off the year," said Joel Frankel.

7:00: The majority of the senior class arrived. Old friends reunited and caught up after the long summer break. "It was nice to see everyone that I didn't hang out with over the summer," said Krista Whalen.

7:15: Our Associate Principal, Mr. Jim Skoog, gave a speech to the seniors wishing them good luck and encouraging them to work their hardest ever in their last year. He also gave them permission to be ten minutes late to first bell, just this once.

7:30: Senior breakfast was over and students slowly made their way to the first class of their last year of high school. By Kim Andrews
