

"Spring break was such an amazing week. Being in a tropical atmosphere with my best friends was something I will remember for the rest of my life," said Kim Andrews

Paradise Awaits

Stop Watch: Spring Break

The last hurrah! In one of the final attempts to create lasting memories countless groups of friends flocked to countless destinations and celebrated their much anticipated senior spring break. From the sunshine state of Florida, to tropical beaches of Mexico the seniors enjoyed their time off as the end of their high school career approached.

"Going to California was a really nice break away from the annoyances of Cincinnati," said Mandy Hauser.

Whether students went with a few close friends to Florida or with a large group to the shores of the Dominican Republic, a great time was had by all.

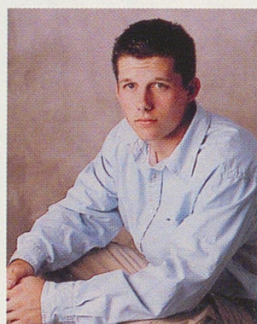

"Once I was in Destin I never wanted to leave. I had such a good time with my close friends, and was really upset to have to come home," said Chase Jones.

After all the built up excitement for spring break, seniors returned to school with great tans, stories, and pictures. The week away from all the stress of home was well worth it.

Looking absolutely suitable. This group of nine girls including Nancy Ramstetter, Amanda Meyer, Melanie Wolkoff, Molly Thorpe, Debbie Tippet, Stacy Tolos, Sarah Kadetz, Erica Scheer, and Sara Demuth, quickly adjusted to the warm Florida sun. The break week spent in Ft. Myers was a relaxing trip. The large group allowed for the girls to share a memorable time with friends they would soon be leaving upon entering college. "Ft. Myers was a great getaway from the stresses of home. I loved being with my best friends in such a sunny vacation spot. We were able to meet tons of other spring breakers from around the country too," said Kadetz.
