Stop Watch: The Future

on applying...

"The application process was really long and repetitive, but for basic admission you really only need one essay- every college wants to hear the exact same thing as the next."

Phil Krawec

"I am going to England this summer to check out the colleges over there, it's such an exciting experience."

Andrea Bassett

on acceptance...

"Getting the acceptance letter is like a breath of relief, senioritis kicks in almost immediately after."

Richa Garg

on leaving...

"I am sad that a chapter of my life has ended, but I couldn't be more excited to go to college."

Dan Fawley

"I am beyond senioritis, I am SO READY FOR COLLEGE!"

Diana Dine

1. Stressed out?

Johnny Lee tries to decide which school he will attend. 2. Decisions, Decisions, Decisions. Christianna Matthews picks up college applications from the College and Career Center. Many students started their college search there.
