It is hard to let you go. Your "unique" sense of humor has brought so much joy to our lives. You make it look like we did a great parenting job. Thanks!

*Love you,
Mom and Dad*

Amy & Julie Morris

"Chance made us sisters, hearts made us friends." There was a plan for the three of us to be sisters, but we become best friends on our own. Thank you both for your love and friendship. Our bond will stretch to wherever you go in life and I look forward to seeing what you two will become in this world. All my love.

*Your Big Sister,
Lisa*

Eighteen years ago, we held you in our arms and thanked God for the gift of life. We held your hands, our grip becoming lighter with each year that passed. Now we hold you in our hearts and celebrate the journeys you will take and the dreams you will live. "Mercy, peace, and love be your in abundance." Jude 1:2

*We love you,
Mom & Dad*
