An on-going mystery for months, who was the sniper? Witnesses turning up at crime sites telling what they saw and describing what the serial killer looked like. John Muhammed and Lee Boyd Malvo were arrested after being found sleeping at a rest stop with a high power gun in the back of their car. The car had actually had a hole drilled in it to serve as a mount the gun could fit. People were looking for them in the frequently seen white astrovan fleeing from the crimes, however that was found abandoned. Throughout this wild goose chase, seven lives were taken. No connections were able to be found between the victims.
