

Freshman Reception

One more milestone passed! Remember November twenty-fifth, Freshmen? White and green, green and white! Pale pink music shading into crimson at times; pink punch shading into white later; nice pink girls—nice green boys. Nice time, too. Nice!

Gone all too soon! Remember your reception, Freshmen—your first dip into the vat which colors social life at U. C.; this time a green and white one with a dash of pink—nice, what?
