

September 24—introductions all around! Old friendships. Now begin all the work and play which comprise our life for the big ten-month.

Before the real business Greek letter boys must corral their freshmen, so that the lodge may be kept in order and the mortgage paid off. "Mighty glad to know ya'." It's all in the game.

After several weeks have passed the University takes the young ones in hand, and having separated them from shoes and socks, shows them their places. It pays to be educated.
