

Not to forget the new Y. M. C. A. shelter, in which we feel our pride expand, what with such generously inspired citizens as Mrs. David B. Gamble and her two sons. Just watch what happens to that lumber heap on Calhoun.

Fooled, fooled. This isn't a picture of a new building—just an illustration of the heights to which our Freshman and Sophomore women can rise in the interest of such a spirited affair as Color Day.

How these Spring events pile up! Again the freshwomen show their capacity for work. After perusing the contents of the initial issue of the Retort, we rather question the validity of the demure expressions on the faces of these "newsies."
