

With spring house cleaning finished, Spring Home Coming is in order. Here we see the co-ed gypsies of the itching palms, all set to bring home shekels. They do, and Home Coming is a financial as well as a social success.

In the hollow behind the Woman's Building, we find the picturesque setting for the Fraternity Sing, which is one of the features of the day. We suppose that as this snapshot's taken the boys are in their houses tuning up. At any rate, the air itself seems musical.

Prexy's happy. Proud, we suppose, of all these noble alumni. Proud of all these boys and girls about to graduate.
