

Dedicated to

Daniel Lawrence

This, the thirty-seventh volume of the Cincinnati, gratefully recognizes his years of loyal service to the University, his constant help and patience in all the problems of the student-body in the past, and looks to him in the future for the fulfillment of those traditions that progress and the years have left hallowed. :: :: :: :: ::

