

1930

You can't stop the greatest of Ohio's Football teams. Hart, of Ohio, takes a bust at the Red and Black line.

"Down the street comes the rebel tread—" Ohio's eighty-piece band, leading the parade, re-echoes the thundering march of her football team.

There is deep gloom during the game, but plenty of laughs between the halves. Here are two of the winning floats.

