

October

- 1 — Marion McMillan rates a date with an ignorant frosh.
- 2 — 1929 Cincinnatian comes out.
- 4 — Thetas take over Putmans as a rush place.
- 5 — Clifton spends night in jail—looking for a Sigma Phi Eta.
- 6 — Customer: "No, not two ham and two egg sandwiches; two ham and egg sandwiches.
- 9 — Carlberg calls a Student Council conflag. After fifteen minutes of silence meeting is adjourned.
- 10 — Clifton detected in front of commons with Millie.
- 12 — Freshwomen make repeated trips to Y. M. C. A. office to gaze at the new secretary.
- 14 — Females on Cincinnatian Staff initiated. George Fry breaks up a water fight.
- 15 — Vernier and Leach get in contact. Which is mightier, the pen or the fist? Waiter (to cook): "Two ham sandwiches and an egg sandwich."
- 16 — News pledges itself to support the football team.
- 18 — Cincinnatian Staff reorganized.
- 19 — Sigma Phi Etas rejoice.
- 20 — Mary Bierne gets a crush.
- 22 — Pan-Hellenic holds a mass meeting to decide to carry out the rules "in the spirit."
- 23 — K. D.'s and Kappas attempt to down dirty rush reports.
- 24 — Wild Bill Taylor comes in Cincinnatian office to phone Madison, Wisconsin.
- 26 — Bearcats finish their high school schedule and lose a college game.
- 28 — Mystics rate dates. The Band throws a party.
- 29 — Foster gets cocoa-serving honor.
- 30 — Morton Brown takes up law.

