

November

2 — Cincinnati Staff is reorganized.

Customer: "No, not three sandwiches. Two sandwiches. Ham and eggs. Two sandwiches."

3 — Elections approach. (On lame legs.)

7 — Y. W. C. A. Fashion Show. Girls model lingerie over swimming suits.

8 — Beta Kappas put on Mummers Play.

13 — Ellen Peters and Francis Durbin appear with titian locks. President of Y. is disillusioned. "They seemed such nice girls," he murmured.

15 — Freshwomen demand every third day for themselves so they can dunk.

16 — Cincinnati considers submitted photos of beauties a mistake. Oh, where are the girls of yesteryear.

20 — Compromise over the number of Lam Chis and Delts to be on the Comedy committee.

21 — Gayman and Nieman reconsider. Decide to include the Kappas.

Waiter (to cook): "An order of ham and eggs." (To customer): "What kind of sandwiches?"

22 — Boyle and Leach work up an idea so pure that it won't sink—a floating university.

25 — Bill Hammond refuses to publish "nasty" letters in the News; "Keep the News clean for politics," is his cry.

28 — Miami game. Hallet denies he is a Beta. All loyal Betas deny they are Betas.

29 — Freshmen enter social world at Reception.

30 — Freshmen still think it was a school dance.
