

May

1 — "Tash" is crowned Queen of May. The green-eyed monster bites Waldman.

2 — Ruth Oexman gets out her tennis racket and gives Pete Zinke a scare.

5 — Customer: "That's right, a ham and egg sandwich. Two of those."

6 — Triangles pass anti-liquor act. News straw vote discloses a moist institution.

11 — Waiter (to kitchen): "Two ham and egg sandwiches."

14 — Esther Lukens found in gutter near a home-brew joint.

16 — The Varsity boat ride was attended by Third Street Annie and Central Avenue Bess. They both fell for the Ugly Man. Pi Alpha Omicron Summons.

19 — Lucille Puckett indignant. "I almost had him myself," she sobs.

20 — Junior Show. Adams and Owens impersonated for fourth consecutive year.

21 — Bob Allison caught picking daisies. See a fortune teller, Bob.

22 — Cook: "Two ham and two egg sandwiches?"
Hotel Varsity lures athletic and fraternity material with one of those beautiful Commons meals.

24 — P.A.D.'s hold another beer swoggle. It must be law!

26 — Walker gets a free trip to Geneva.

