

DEAR READER:

This is a little puzzle. We are describing the advertisement for "the best dance of the year." It is either the Junior Prom, Beaux Arts Ball, Sophomore Hop, Freshman Reception, Co-op Struggle, Ulex Brawl, Senior Hop, Military Bawl, or International Club dance. You guess.

"Plans for the biggest and best dance ever held on this campus are already well under way. L. F. Heingemacht, General Chairman, promised us that this will be the biggest social event of the year. In fact, there are only a few tickets left, so you better buy them now or you won't get in.

"The hottest band in town (so hot they wilted) will syncopate and elucidate and perpetuate the harmonic medleys that delight the hearts of all terpsichorean advocates. Here is a chance to trip the light fantastic to the kind of band you'll never hear again.

"The gym will be so decorated that it will be unrecognizable. You will think you are in Mehalley's Emporium on the Friday night before the big blow-out. Anyone who can guess where he is will be given a free trip around the school.

"The big event of the evening will be the crowning of the Queen of Sheba and her unfortunate spouse. This will pick out the most popular girl and man in the school, and, of course, politics will have nothing to do with it. Everybody will have a chance to crown them, and whoever makes the best job of it will receive a solid gold loving-cup, guaranteed to hold out under anything but wood alcohol.

"Everybody in the school who is ANYBODY will be there, so you'll just have to come. If you don't, it means you haven't got school spirit, three bucks, or a date.

"Allez-oop!"
