

DELTA ZETA

Meeting opened with the Sisters congratulating each other on their rating with the men on the campus. Sister Betty Foy remarked that they at least kept their table in the Commons. Meeting broke up after an hour's argument between Sisters Nichols and Caldwell on the respective merits of Household Administration and Philosophy.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Mary Liz Davies announced that her Sister would be a Mystic next year and that the chapter had better begin getting some Sophomores in activities as there must never be a year without a Mystic from Alpha Chi Omega since she had gotten in over the dead bodies of two K.D.'s. Kay Townsley asked Alice Boyle whether she rated with the Lambda Chi chapter since she and Leach wrote the Musical Comedy together. Melba Phillips announced that Grace Fels and Virginia Haller were going to turn down Kappa bids and join the throng of worthy sisters.

THETA PHI ALPHA

Meeting fell open. Sister Layne moved that the fifty-seven rushees who did not make their grades be dropped from the rush list. There was a heated argument about the rule that barred St. X men from voting for Prom Queen and the chapter despaired of having their fourth Prom Queen. The rest of the evening was spent in trying to decide what was to be done now that there would be no Theta Phi Alpha in Mystic next year.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Meeting opened with songs led by Sister Gillette, of Glee Club fame. Sister Rose moved that Sisters Hanauer and Herbst be invited back for tea and as long as they could stay, as she had gotten a dirty jip from the faculty by being put on pro which left the Sisters out of activities. Sister Schorr remarked that she guessed that it did not matter whether or not Sister Atkinson got married as the tong still had one of the six most beautiful girls in school anyway. Sister Gillette moved that the chapter pay less attention to beauty since Sister List got married anyhow and what they really needed was one or two promising athletes.
