A curious crowd, hopeful but cynical, assembled at Nippert Stadium, eleven thousand strong, to see the much-talked-of Bearcat team tackle Cedarville in the season's opener. Although most of the fans expected a victory, even those most optimistic were agreeably surprised to see the large score which the Bearcats compiled. It was an indication of the fact that football at Old McMicken is on the up-grade at last.

A detailed account of the game would be drab and unexciting, because after the first few minutes of the game, the whole question was how large the score would be. The Bearcat backs, aided by the good work of the line, drove, romped and skidded over and around the upstater's line for seven large touchdowns.

The hearts of Bearcat rooters rose high as old and new stars flashed upon the horizon. Cliff Goldmeyer, kicker "par excellence," played a great defensive game, booted spectacularly and, in addition, reeled off runs of thirty and thirty-five yards to score two touchdowns.

Little Ed Siding, sophomore half back phenom, was the "big gun" in the backfield however. Everytime he carried the ball, Varsity followers chalked up ten yards or more for the Red and Black. In the short time he was in the game, Siding gained over one hundred fifty yards from scrimmage and scored twice.

The outstanding Bearcat linesman was Jensen, giant sophomore tackle. Cedarville found him a concrete wall on the defense, and when Varsity had the ball, he opened up huge holes for the ball carriers to pierce. All in all, the team showed much promise.

Nite crowd—After the game some of these football enthusiasts may be found at the Pi Kap brawl. Or the Sig Ete Rush Dance. Perhaps some will drop in at Ship's. Then again they may go home.
