

ARE YOU A RUSSIAN OR JUST IN A HURRY?

At the traditional Z. T. A. Rush Party

What song titles do these snap shots remind you of: "Mmmmmmmmm, would you like to take a walk" with these old fashioned beruffled Zeta Tau Alphas? Any number of rush girls did after this party. Milly seems to have read the hand writing on the wall and it's all hotsy totsy . . . just see her beam

"I love you truly, K. K. G." How many rushee hearts pounded to this haunting tune at the Kappa formal? Sykes, Small, Burkhardt, Zoeller and Gillham seemed to be thrilled at any rate. Ruth is on the brink of glee too

"It just takes a Chi Omega with a Chi Omega smile." Everybody has heard that one but few people ever consider the beauty of Chi Omega backs. Here the Chi Os are listening to the Beta serenade at their rush formal. Seventeen charming girls saw the beauty of it all and came out with cardinal and straw ribbons on pledge day

Just a bevy of costumed Tri Delt "moon"ing over their freshmen. If the Jack Tarr uniforms fail to work the trick the hoola outfits are sure to do so. And who is the bearded lady with the pitchfork? We trust that it wasn't necessary to use force on any of the twenty-two neophytes they corralled
