Eleanor Douglass

For three years Eleanor Douglass has appeared in the musical comedies. In her freshman year she hoofed it through the numbers of Lilane. Her sophomore year was spent in pining over the fact that the Fresh Painters had fallen from grace so she could hardly grace the stage that season. Last year the faculty became so alarmed over her lamentations that they permitted Sittin' Pretty to be produced with Eleanor as a pony. This year she danced in G'wan 'n' Kiss Her. A senior in education and (whisper it) much in love. Kappa Kappa Gamma
