

HERE AND THERE —

Lambda Chi Dance

High up on a hill the majestic home of Sigma Tau Phi glares down on the passer-by. Now here is a group of collegians for you; it is late November, yet they are all bare headed and without coats, and the windows are wide open. We feel that the boys must have had some little trouble in opening the shutters

Oexman and Schultz

When present-day campus lights dine with celebrities of years gone by. The Mystic Thirteen Founder's Day Banquet is a big event in the lives of those who find themselves for the first time among the chosen few. The ceiling of this room in the Y. M. C. A. still bears the large black burn of the flash-light, as if in memory of this noted occasion

For some unknown reason the position of band sponsor is an somewhat coveted honor among the women. Ruth Oexman is this year's sponsor and as such it is not only her duty to provide dates for the band, pinch-hitting herself in emergencies, but it is her unusual privilege to accompany this mighty musical organization wherever it goes. A joke which Oexman told Drum Major Schultz fifteen minutes before this picture was taken is beginning to show itself on his face
