VALENTINE'S DAY

So the Kappa Deltas crash through for the second year to elect another bearded lady to the title of Queen of Hearts. Probably the soothing Millcreek breezes have something to do with it. But little Alma is all right; at least she has some swell dance programs and a superiority complex (which she conceals, of course.) George Kramer, the Kink, is shown thinking up a theme song. He attributes his popularity (hence his election) to: (1) been no where. (2) done nothing. (3) Keeps his trap shut about it.
