Conventions, Initiations, Banquets

Representatives at the Pi Delta Epsilon Convention

The Pi Delta Epsilon Convention, held at Cincinnati in the middle of April, was attended by delegates from all parts of the country. The group above was snapped at the Varsity "Y" just after a short business meeting. The representatives were entertained with a dinner at the "Y," tickets to "G'wan 'N' Kiss Her," and a dance at the Gibson Roof following the show.

Just a bunch of bruisers! The guys without blindfolds are active members of Ulex. The other guys are neophytes—God preserve them! It's initiation night and from the looks of things, it will be quite an evening. The neophytes will probably remember this night for some time. Anyhow, a good time will be had by all—that is, all the actives.

Here is a part of the crowd which enjoyed the Pi Delta Convention struggle after the final performance of the Musical Comedy. Peg Terry and Bill Hudson, seen in the center of the group, favored the guests with several selections. Other members of the cast also appear on the photo. In the back row, Sid Mulliken, comedian, is vulgarly displaying his new bridgework.

The Hotel Metropole was the scene of the Founders' Day Banquet of Chase chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. The guests of honor were Howard Bevis '08, and Charles E. Weber '08, both of whom are founders of Chase chapter. The speaker of the evening was Orie Ware '04. The banquet was preceded by the initiation ceremonies by which William Fetick was made a member of the chapter.
