

BILL KISKER

ALMA KOTHE

GEORGE KRAMER and JEAN PHARES

JEAN GROSSMAN

● Bill Kisker, stellar blonde (and bland) of the hardwood, won his letter on the basketball squad this year and helped to make the Sophomore Hop a success, a big success. Delta Tau Delta

● Alma Kothe, College of Liberal Arts and a Kappa Delta, was elected Queen of Hearts at the Sophomore Hop, in effect a selection of the most popular girl in the second-year class. She spends her time around the Cincinnatian office

● George Kramer, Lambda Chi Alpha, was elected King of the Sophomore Hop, treasurer of his class, managed ticket sales for the musical comedy, and is a charter member of Sophos, the new honorary. Ulex and Fresh Painter keys

● Jean Phares, a quiet little girl with a little golden Kappa Key, is prominent on the Women's Debate Team, musical comedy production committee, Mummies, Greek Games and, of course, the Cincinnatian . . . that noble volume

● Jean Grossman, a member of Phi Sigma Sigma, sings in the Glee Club. She also sang, as well as danced, in the show-girl chorus of G'wan 'n' Kiss Her. Member of the Varsity Art Club and the A. A. Club. Habitué of Swift Hall
