

MORE BASEBALL

The first Buckeye contest with Ohio Wesleyan, was a thriller from start to finish. The two hurlers hooked up in a pitcher's battle and hits were few and far between. Fleig, Varsity first baseman doubled in the eighth to drive home the second and winning tally for Cincinnati.

Kentucky State Wildcats next invaded Carson Field and played a thirteen inning 3-3 tie with Varsity. Sterling defensive work by both teams featured the battle, which was ended only with the coming of dusk.

A two day conference trip to Athens and Granville resulted in an even break. Ohio U. took the measure of the Bearcats 6-5, after a hard struggle. The Bobcats got the breaks and took advantage of them. With Kunz on the mound, Varsity crushed Denison under a 12-3 landslide. The hostiles trailed from the start, and never had a chance. Whitaker, Altemeier, Muth and Berwanger hit hard and often in this game.

Home, again, Cincinnati hopped on the offerings of Dick Bass, Miami ace, and premier Buckeye slab artist, to crash through with a 9-1 victory. Kunz proved painfully parsimonious in his allowance of Oxford bingles, while hits combined with costly Miami errors turned the tide McMickenward. Fleig's homer and triples by Murphy, Berwanger and Muth proved valuable to the Bearcat cause.

Continuing their swat spree, the Bearcats unleashed an avalanche of hits against Denison and cantered home to a 14-1 decision. Every man slugged the pellet unmercifully and the result was never in doubt.

West Virginia was the next victim, dropping a well played contest to our boys, 4-2. Cincinnati's defense again decided the game.

Two Buckeye battles resulted in a brace of wins. At home to Ohio U., the Bearcats took sweet revenge and carved out a luscious victory, 4-3. A hot smash to center, which got through the Bobcat center fielder, enabled Waldman to make the entire circuit for the deciding score. With Kunz pitching steady ball, the Bishops were defeated at Delaware for the second time, 9-6. Berwanger and Murphy hit savagely to lead the Cincinnati attack.

Bob Fink, starting his first game, held Marshall comparatively helpless while the Bearcat attack amassed nine runs and the ball game. The high light of the game was the verbal battle between the umps and Marshall's coach, which finally resulted in the banishing of that worthy into outer darkness.

Kentucky State smashed the six game winning streak of the Bearcats by administering a 7-2 trouncing at Lexington. More serious than the defeat was the injury to Si Kunz, who sprained an ankle during the contest, and had to retire.

Cincinnati opened a three game trip to the wilds of Michigan by winning, 4-1, from Western State Teacher's College, in a well pitched game by Rogoff. Michigan State took advantage of Fink's wildness in the second game to cop, 5-3. Then University of Michigan fell brutally upon the crippled Varsity pitching staff to pound out a 15-2 win, completely outplaying the Bearcats.
