

Bids Farewell

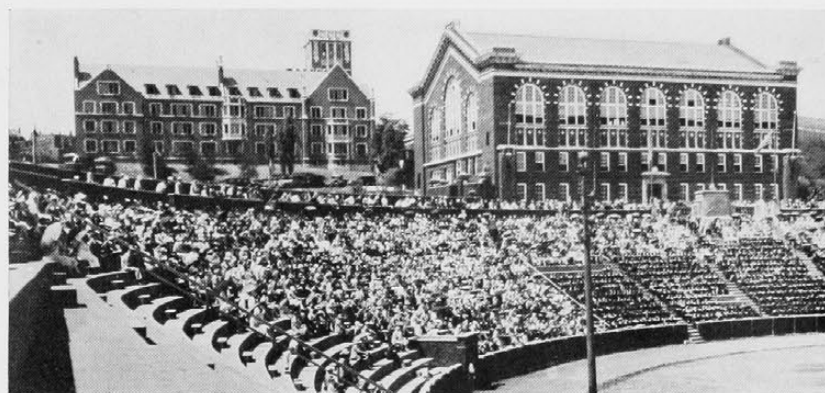

To faculty and professors

To brothers and friends and classmates

For the senior is graduating to law-courts and teaching positions, to hospitals and telephone offices, to road gangs and insurance companies, to newspaper offices, laboratories, stock-companies, drug-stores and weddings, to write and to paint and to loaf, to travel and earn money, to travel and spend money, to advertising jobs and department stores, to ball clubs, Broadway footlights, Indiana farms. The senior is taking his place in life. Farewell! Farewell!

To football games and dances
