U. C. 6 — Ohio State 67

Dana King's Battling Bearcats trod to Ohio State University for their second game. True to the pre-game dope, Coach Willaman's charges were far superior to the spirited Bearcats, but the U. C. squad surprised both the spectators and the dopsters by holding the State team to only seven points in two quarters and scoring six themselves.

The third quarter was the outstanding part of the game for U. C. Ohio State went absolutely scoreless, while the Bearcats ran down the field for their single tally. State's entire first team could not stop the Battling Bearcats in their drive down the field, and Williams took the ball over the goal on a deceptive reverse.

Another bright spot in the Bearcat's play was their defensive ability in holding the State team for four downs on the two foot line. The entire first team of the Scarlet and Gray tried to plunge through U. C. for a touchdown, but the Red and Black refused to give an inch.

Stark thrilled the U. C. fans by running the opening kick off back forty-five yards. But State's line proved too strong and Goldie was forced to kick.

Though the Red and Black team returned home with a 67 to 6 defeat, Coach King's warriors were not as despondent as the score would indicate, for there were no serious injuries; and the excellent treatment by the athletic officials and athletes of Ohio State University engendered a feeling of friendship that comes only from athletic relationships. Every Bearcat came back with a desire to meet Ohio State again on the gridiron.
