

October

"Did someone say ten cents?"

3—Ohio State 67—Us 6. Yeah, and they call it a football game!

5—Deacon Brancamp even inviegels Marg White into joining the Y.

7—Demon Griffiths crashes the Greystone!

8—Mummers decide on stars for coming year—and did old Genevera ever twinkle.

10—"One up for De Pauw"—U. C. 6—De Pauw 7.

13—Lucky Strike Advertising Stunt—The Smooth Levine chisels the girl for 15 packs.

15—Grischy pays off Law School and is elected class president.

19—Danner and Conner play Santa Claus for the unemployed—Hell, they ought to start here!

20—"Lil Ellen" Peters picks the Mummers.

21—Ham Hixon craves his beer—well who don't?

22—Elections begin—they are disgustingly on the up and up this year—school's going back!

24—HOME COMING—The Dorm crowns Whitesides as the "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

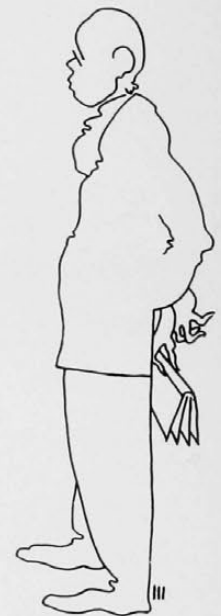

26—"Theta must be kept in the public eye" cooes Margaret Tuechter as she crashes into a police patrol.

27—Mike Connor sells himself to Nau for $1.66.

28—Solinger shouts "Buy a ticket!"—We murmur—"How much do you get Nate?"

30—Tom Pierson, 2nd year Law Student again caught riding a pony—all dressed up in his cowboy suit. Hot cha!

31—Gladys Mosier falls out of a drum and becomes Band Sponsor—pretty clever these D Z's.

*An October thought:
There are other things
in college besides extra - curricular stuff.
(You can write your own caption to this while we trot along
and trouble ourselves
with the gayer trivialities.)*