

Comedy gets under way—Jack Froome instills awe and fear into all who would aspire to fame and glory and “QUIET” is the byword. Ida Hoinke can not resist Ross Hastie. Edith Rummel at an unusually grave moment. The ponies work off a few extra pounds while working up an appetite for their after rehearsal dates.