Senior Tea Dance

A very late dispatch from the Y. M. C. A. informs us that the Senior Tea Dance is in full swing. Late reports said it to be crowning success of years of strife on the part of the worn out and bedraggled Seniors, who by this time are reputed to know all the answers. We are informed, by special correspondent who has been keeping the wires burning, that the unique, novel, unheard of, elegant, and entirely new idea of having each class decorate a corner of the ball room is winning unanimous and thundering approval. we agree that it should for it is the last titanic effort of a noble class.—Anyway it was a good dance.
