

March

"But, professor, you can't really expect us to study our poor heads off about libidos and repressions and all that fiddle-faddle, what with spring just around the proverbial corner—and comedy rehearsals and such. Oh, doctor!"

1—Hennegan airs Simrall on womanhood—"Willingness," says Ed. What does he mean?

3—Sigma Chi crashes through—elections? No a new home. About time, huh?

5—Mrs. Venable refuses to acknowledge bouncing boy. "Grime" goes West.

6—Considering men—"Buttercup" Olmstead craves a Cave-Man.

8—President Schneider gives up—back to his first love—the "Engin" collich.

11—Fresh Painters Reunion—maternity chorus blossoms forth.

12—Junior Prom. Buff Allonier gets a crown and a fiancé.

15—Pi Kap shower out of order—Ed Verkerk plunges into icy waters of Burnet Woods.

18—Aesthetic audience at Greek Games tosses pennies into arena.

19—Amy Howard is sweet to "Her Friend the King."

21—"Grand Hotel." Sam Jaffie delights in being a personality girl.

22—Mystic slumbers—Peters (the little mother), Durbin, and Berger turn into smoke stacks.

23—Harold Rice calls for justice. Mummers criticism is extreme.

24—"Groppy" retaliates in his usual intelligent manner.

31—Half-clad dancers appear at Co-op Stag, Prexy Schneider loses composure.

*"Did you vote for the Prom Queen?"
"Yes, three times."*