

April

Our Beloved Jack: "Now you people go thru that business right this time or I'll quit again."

1—Mystic 13 Tea Dance and Style Show. Norm Schmidt and Whitey Lunsford show their figures. April Fool.

3—Gil Werner decides in favor of Detroit beer.

4—Spring vacation for the Art Steweds, rehearsals go on and on.

6—Basement Joe bounces C. Chester Charles on his head—maybe it will keep.

9—Oh, for the dear, gay Nineties, bustles and sideburns. Allan Walsh adopts a soup strainer.

11—"Tarts Are Trump." The best coat of paint ever, even Junior League thinks so.

12—Bill Hill presents beauties—we wonder?

13—Amidst the riotous beer song of Sigma Sigma, Mystic 13 taps. Dean Simrall chuck-a-lucks.

15—Giny Taylor and Jack Saks pack for Geneva. Ship ahoy.

16—The virtuous Mendel falls from grace at the Fresh Painter's Finale.

17—Martha Diehl, with bottle in hand, cracks up a plane.

18—No dates in, no petitions, what kind of elections are these?

20—Eat apples, stand up straight, keep fit, Health Week—baloney.

23—Mortor Board (putt-putt) Installation.

29—Bray and other co-ops display their wares to high school seniors and other disinterested parties.

30—A tragedy, what a tragedy—Mummers present "Redemption."

Potatoes are Cheaper —