

Burkhardt on the run again — we have never been able to discern whether she is running to, or running from. Or let them forever hold their peace — (farce). The A. T. O.'s caught at home. Kramer, "thirty cents a gallon is too much." Charles—chairman of the "back to kindergarden movement." Green and Red hanging aloft—screaming women atop every building—Color Day. When "Shots" of yesteryear gather round — impressive to say the least — Mortor Board. The Co-eps display their symbol of purity, charity and truthity. Small gets her just reward—the good and well known, however old fashioned, shiner. Bevis and Fitzgerald caught at an unusually serious moment. Peek-a-boo, Mary. The Co-ops display their wares on Co-op Day. (No sale.)
