

June

"And I'll write every week."

1—A poor cocktail—June nights and Exams—Ah me!

2—With the first streaks of gray hair, Charlie Mueller passes Freshman Algebra.

3—Old Maid Holzman tries her last trick—caught in the woods with Tom Wiggers.

4—Durbin and Lukens lose faith—O, where are the men of yester-years?

5—A Baccalaureate service—Hotter than Hell—What price glory!

6—Adele Berger, Queen of the Campus tells Hendrick that as a king he wouldn't be so hot. Life is grim.

7—Seniors quaff pink tea for the last time, before accepting the bitter dregs of the cup of life.

8—Women's luncheon—that's why caviar is my dish.

9—Class Day. Harkness and Allonier carry the ivy. Solinger delivers his last address. Time is fleeting. Life is short.

10—The alums play golf.

11—Graduation Day—Local boys make good! Tower leaves!

So Long—Ha! Ha! Ha!
