

"Seventeen men and a boy" — John Barleycorn spends the week (weak) end with Mulliken and Brown. Have an earful people. A final initiation — hot, weary and dusty, some with joy and others reminiscent — who can tell what the future may bring? Would that we could look past those distant hills! Not a bad guy at that — this Bob Bishop. Clifty Falls — Beresford — Horstman — Peters. — Oh for the repartee of Duncan. "And he learned about women from her" — Thoughts of summer — Geneva Y. W. conference. A bang-up thunder shower — when Thor unleashes his thunder-bolts and shakes the world with a mighty roar. When not used as a bumming room or a Kappa smoking room, Hill and Tower towered above these distractions to present the 1932 Cincinnati.
