

PERSONABLE MISSES CHOSEN BY JUDGES AS CONTEST WINNERS

III

Taking a page from Madame Glyn's book, the NEWS presents above the essence of personality at U. C. Thirteen college men have selected these six girls as best representing that elusive and much discussed quality.

Narrowing the list of forty-two entrants down to those chosen was an extremely difficult task, according to committee members who have served as judges in other contests.

The contest is unique on this campus, having been originated only this year. It has aroused intense interest and rivalry among the co-eds, and the presentation at Shubert Theatre Monday night, March 21, was given an unusually spirited reception.

Mary Louise Dieterle, Chi Omega, is at the base of the "T," and Morton Brown, Kappa Alpha Theta, is immediately above her.
