

"Great Things Come from Small Beginnings"

"Inevitable"

"King"

"Deaconess"

"Newsite"

"Wild Bill"

"Gebby"

"Columnist"

"Fresh Paint"

"Inevitable," would that leave any doubt in your mind? You're right it couldn't be anyone other than Mary Beresford, alias Captain Pouf-Pouf. Even here is apparent the beginning of a mighty blonde terror, chorus girl, Theta and heart breaker. This is not an ordinary "King," this is the king of the debutantes. Bill Hill doesn't seem "Happy" here. Fran Durbin won the name of "Deaconess" after four years of strife. Even here "Newsite" Gordon Strauss displays a weakness for flannel night-gowns and woolly lambs. "Wild Bill" Horstman caught at most undignified moment. We don't even have to tell you that "Gebby" is Janet Gebhardt. To "Columnist" we might add councilist and comedian, now you know it is Jean Hennegan. That "Fresh Paint" smile is a dead giveaway for Paul Heckel

(Editor's note: This page was arranged and engraved unbeknown to the Editor. It was a conspiracy between a snoopy reporter and disloyal parents. Wise guys!)