

"Your Dog and My Dog"

"Mike" Buhmann

"Fritz" Gebhardt

"Titian" Greeno

"Sandy-Andy" Kindle

"Dusky" Lucius

Harold Von Kinderheim II
Λ X A

"Teto" Hubert

"Phi" ΦΔΘ

"Teddy" Cohn

"Eric" Baxter

"John Gilbert" Wilson

Jus' Plain Dogs

"Bum" Alcorn

"Mike" is rather a saucy little pup, as you can see from his impudent face, full of steam and wants to play all the time. To you and me and other ordinary people "Fritz" is a very formidable obstacle and is not very companionable but really he is an awful good scout. "Titian" is very demure and good natured. Little "Sandy-Andy" just bounces around on his stiff little legs and inquires into everything. "Dusky" is the kind of a dog that rouses the whole neighborhood at three o'clock in the morning. "Teto" was very aloof to me but was a very likable sort. "Phi" and "Harold" put up with an awful lot. "Eric" is a coy little matter of many pounds. "Teddy" is nice and fluffy. "John Gilbert" is a real good guy and is our candidate for ugly man. Joe Castle's dogs certainly can do wonders. "Bum" is another rousing good dog.