

Precisely because a well-rounded life for an individual and for an institution should include recreation, relaxation and youthful joy I welcome this issue of THE CINCINNATIAN which records all these elements in the lives of our undergraduates and of the University of Cincinnati. We are truly wise if, having done our best in this dark day, we take enjoyment when, in Milton's phrase, "God sends a cheerful hour."

RAYMOND WALTERS