BEARCATS Receive Candy From 'Joe'

When the invitation was extended to Colonel Waite at that time the University expected to honor him with the doctorate as the outstanding citizen of Cincinnati. He was city engineer under Mayor Henry Hunt in this city before taking the post as the first city manager of Dayton. From that position he moved into various engineering projects and more recently acted as chief engineer in charge of the new terminal.

BEARCATS Business Head Screams

As a parting shot—last year's team—Miami has eight regulars from last year's team—Comany, your former him—is only a substitute! What a ball toter this Fertig must be! Vandervort is still running there day after day at Wesleyan—Ohio U. has the best sophomore material in years. Marshall lost only two regulars last year—Kentucky's line on average 203 pounds—the "things"—Now, you down-town coaches, just pick Cincy to romp off with the Buckeye—I dare you.
