

SHIPLEY'S

An institution devoted entirely to the increase of gaiety in student life. An eating place to which every visit after graduation will bring pleasant memories of glorious school days.
A name of which we are justly proud.

For more than Fifty Years . . .

"Don't send me back to Petrograd." Mademoiselle Glenna Weishaupt will now sing "My Old Kentucky Home."

Beware the wrath of a silent man says someone with authority. "Champ" Heil has the physical make-up that allows a man to be a gentleman at all costs.

Good sports writer is Mulford Mentel, not hand in hand, however, with that faculty goes an ability of being a good meteorologist — witness his early blossomings of sartorial iridescence.

Forgotten Men — Young, Strasser and Johnson. Left foundlings by an unappreciative News, and a dead-and-buried Musical Comedy they are now ready for mummifying. Consolation, however, have all three—Johnson, his Y. M. C. A.; Young, his get-arounding, and Stasser, his consolation.
