

Emmerich

Gulick

CINCINNATI—21

MIAMI—0

The Buckeye title at stake . . . precision in everything the Red and Black does . . . Nolting lunges over . . . Gant blocks . . . Schwarburg catches five passes . . . one for a score . . . the line is perfect . . . Miami doesn't have a chance . . . this is the club we expected . . . King yanks the regulars . . . Carl Williams, Nolting, Smith, Ballard, Gant, the rest . . . delirious fans cheer them, jerk their jerseys . . . kiss them . . . the first Buckeye flag . . . redemption . . . even the cynics feel deep emotion . . . the South forgotten . . . joy supreme . . .

Nolting makes the first touchdown against Miami with half the boys looking on.

