OUR LADY OF THE ANGELS HIGH SCHOOL

A Tribute to Alma Mater

AS WE, THE CLASS OF '34, are about to leave the sheltering care of our loved Alma Mater, we pause to think of a fitting tribute to pay to Our Lady of the Angels. Turning to the Bible, we find in the Book of Esther, "The man whom the king would honor should be clothed in the royal robes, and placed on the king's horse, and the first of the King's princes should walk before him." Why not adopt this suggestion and give threefold honor to our Alma Mater?

The first requirement we cannot fulfill; it has already been carried out. Reverend Mother Clarissa as Mother General of the Oldenburg Sisters worked to build the beautiful structure that forms the material building of Our Lady of the Angels High School. The Sisters of St. Francis, as faculty, themselves garbed in the livery of the King, have labored on the minds and hearts of the pupils to make them verily children of the King. Our Lady of the Angels has been clothed in royal robes by others, so this cannot be ours to do.

Others, too, have been before us in accomplishing the second stipulation. Our school has been carried along the road to renown on the steed of progress in the many successful activities. The achievements of scholastic work, the orchestra and band, the attractions of the Girls' Hobby Fair that won for our school the prize Cup, the dramatic club, the athletic teams, and Our Lady of the Angels alumnae, holy and successful in their walks of life—all these have aided in riding Alma Mater upon the royal steed of renown.

Thus two of the Biblical regulations are already accomplished. But the third is surely our own to do. We, the Class of '34, as royal princesses can place ourselves in the rank of those who go forth to proclaim the honors of the school which the King wishes to honor. By our actions, by following the ideals placed before us at Our Lady of the Angels High School, we can make our lives the heralds of the glory to Our Alma Mater. In the words of our loved school song we can

*"Sing, sing, sing—our Alma Mater's glory:
Cheer, cheer, cheer—yes, cheer her loud and long:
Sound her praise, proclaim her noble story,
Chant her name in chorus full and strong."*

—CECILE PUKE, '34.

Amaranth

*Amaranth, flower in our Annual renowned.
Can sweeter significance anywhere be found?
Unfading . . . undying . . . 'tis thus the flower stands,
And lovingly, gratefully, remembrance commands.*

*In memory we'll keep through life's lasting day
The treasured remembrance that love would repay,
The honors we gained, the pleasures we shared,
In the Amaranth spirit of all that we dared.*

*The four years of high school, the lessons, the girls—
'Tis these that the bloom of the Amaranth unfurls.
Our teachers, our chaplain, our pastors so kind,
Close to our parents in Amaranth we bind.*

—RUTH STEINMETZ, '34.

The Handwriting on the Wall

PRIZE ESSAY

"The handwriting on the wall" is a familiar phrase originating in the Bible story of King Balthasar. The story tells of the King who used the sacred vessels to serve wine to his guests. While they were drinking from them, a hand appeared on the wall and wrote three words: "Mane, Thecel, Phares," words which were interpreted by Daniel as follows:

"The days of thy kingdom are numbered and it is at an end."

"Thy merits are weighed in the balance and thou art found wanting."

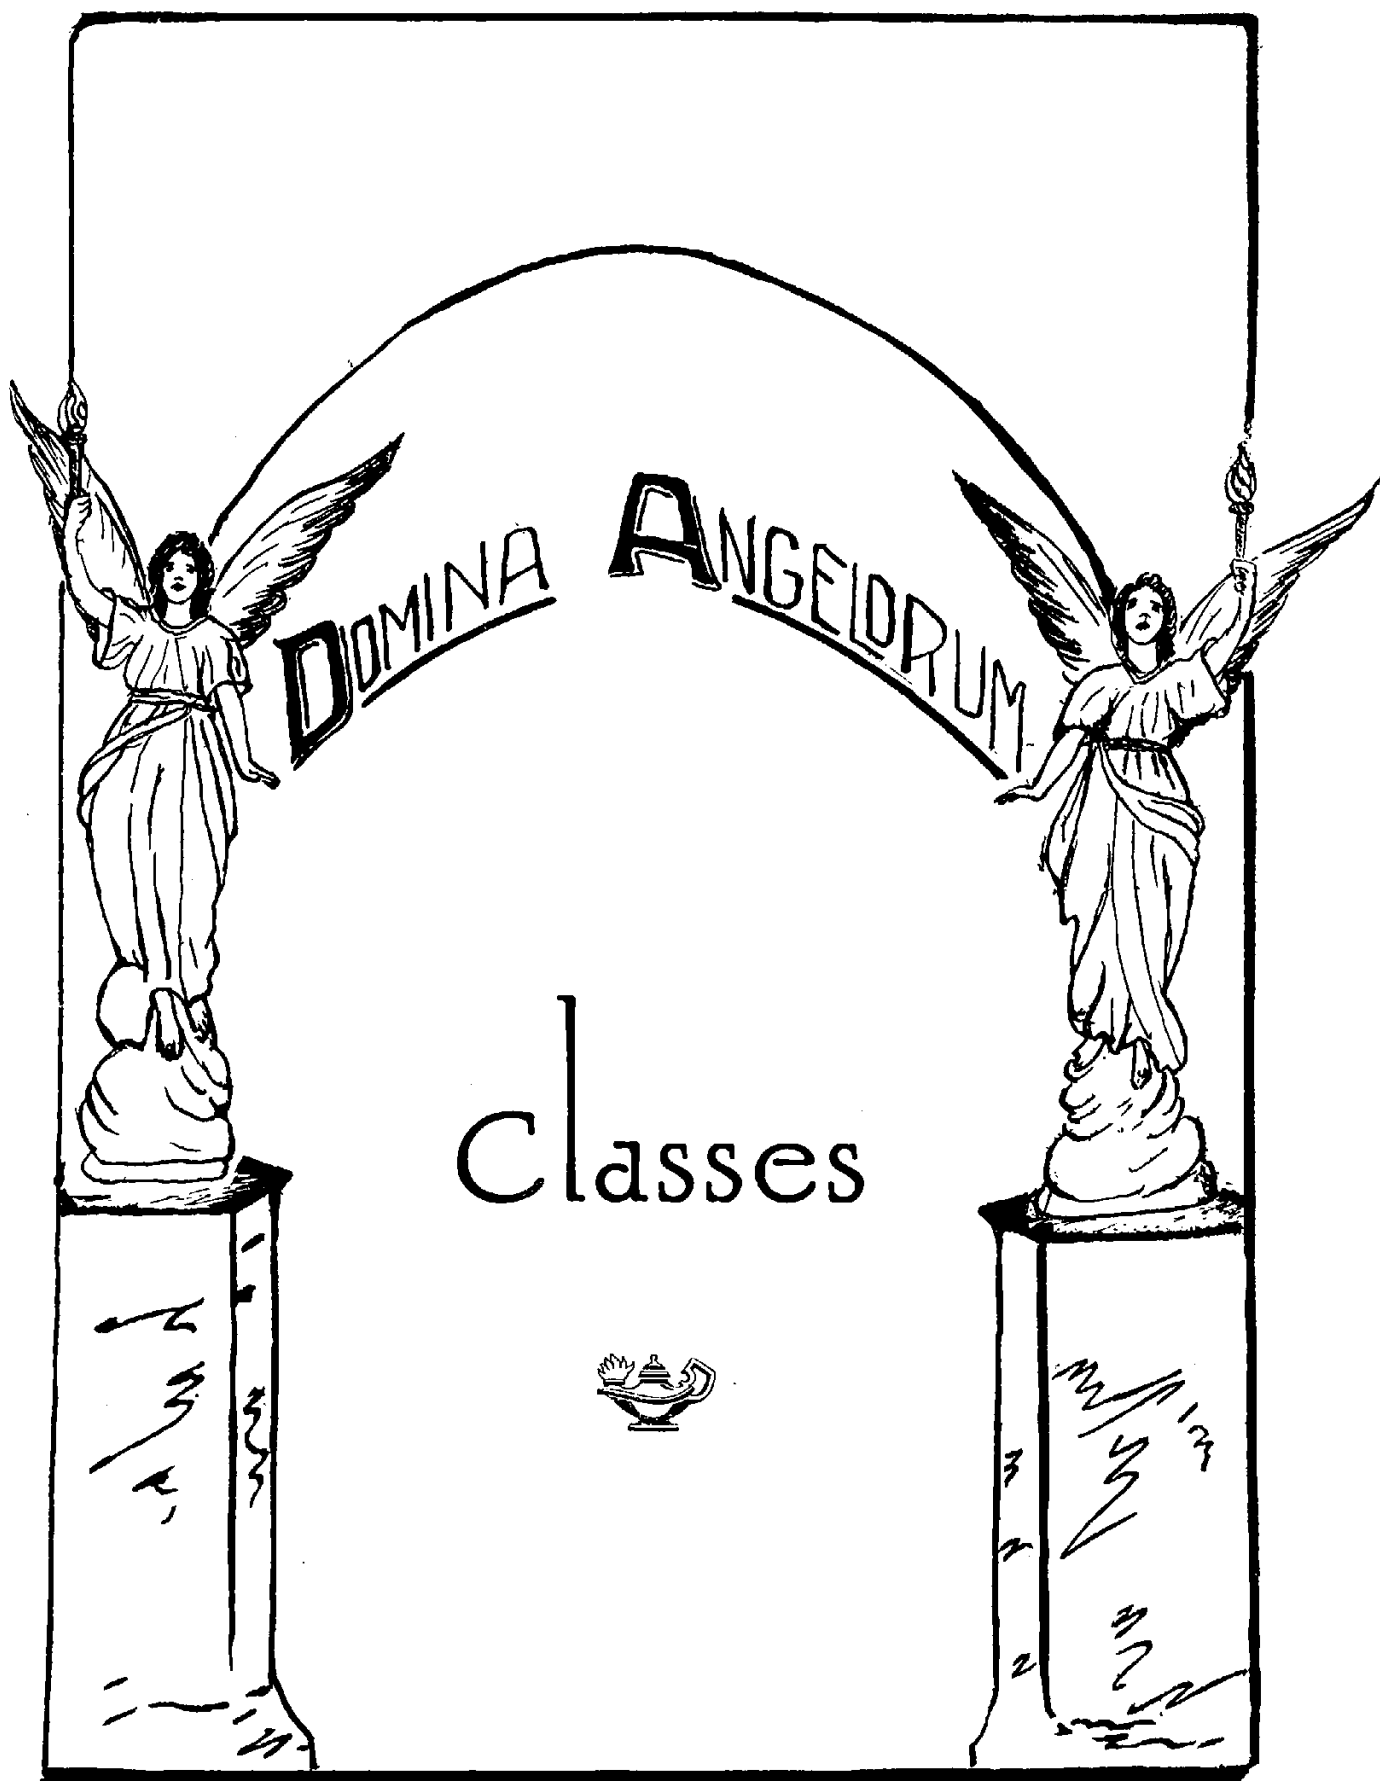

"Thy kingdom shall be divided among the Medes and the Persians."

Today we too are seated at a banquet, the Banquet of Life. Temptations are seated about us at the table. King Movies is our host. At the banquet King Movies leads us on until finally he is drinking from our very souls every drop of purity and morality that we have heretofore guarded so carefully. We are not realizing that a simple movie has led others to destruction and can just as easily lead us astray. The wine of the picture lulls us to passive receptivity of evil influence; the music of its song urges us on to passionate expression. It is the sole purpose of King Movies' servers to break down our sense of decency and modesty and in such way bring on the moral corruption of the world.

Is it at today's banquet or at tomorrow's that God will show His displeasure at the degradation that King Movies is bringing on? Is it tomorrow that a hand will appear before us just as it did before Balthasar? Is not the prophecy that the days of Balthasar's kingdom were numbered and that it would soon be divided written for King Movies? Will not bad movies become extinct through our efforts to combat them? Will not their kingdom be divided among movies that are educational and worthwhile recreational?

Our Valentine To O. L. A.

VERGILIAN ECHOES

I, 607-610

*As long as the stars in the heavens shine
Our love for you will not decline.*

*As long as the sun burns in the sky
Your memories shall never die.*

*As long as rivers onward flow
Your influence over our lives will glow.*

*As the shadow of a mighty mountain crest
Upon our minds will your teachings rest.*

*As sure as the moon still follows the earth
We, your children, will prove our worth.*

*Wherever we are in fortune or fame
We shall ever praise and honor your name.*

Sir Malcolm's Quest

Many, many years ago,
When chivalry set the world aglow,
When hardest trial was keenest prized,
And only the low was the lot despised,
There lived a knight of high ideal,
The name Sir Malcolm he would reveal.

One day he rescued a maiden fair,
Held captive in a villain's lair.
Anon he felled an outlaw bold,
Who had his king for ransom sold.
He raised the fallen, the wasted powers;
He succored the needy through weary hours.

To serve his king, his country,
By wondrous deeds of gallantry,
To strengthen the feeble, protect the old,
In Heaven to win his crown of gold—
These were his hopes, his lofty aim:
On these he based his knighthood's claim.

Behold! at last to him was given
Promise of the goal for which he'd striven.
For now there came a dangerous quest,
Far, far more difficult than the rest.
Happily he donned his knightly mail,
To search the land for the Holy Grail.

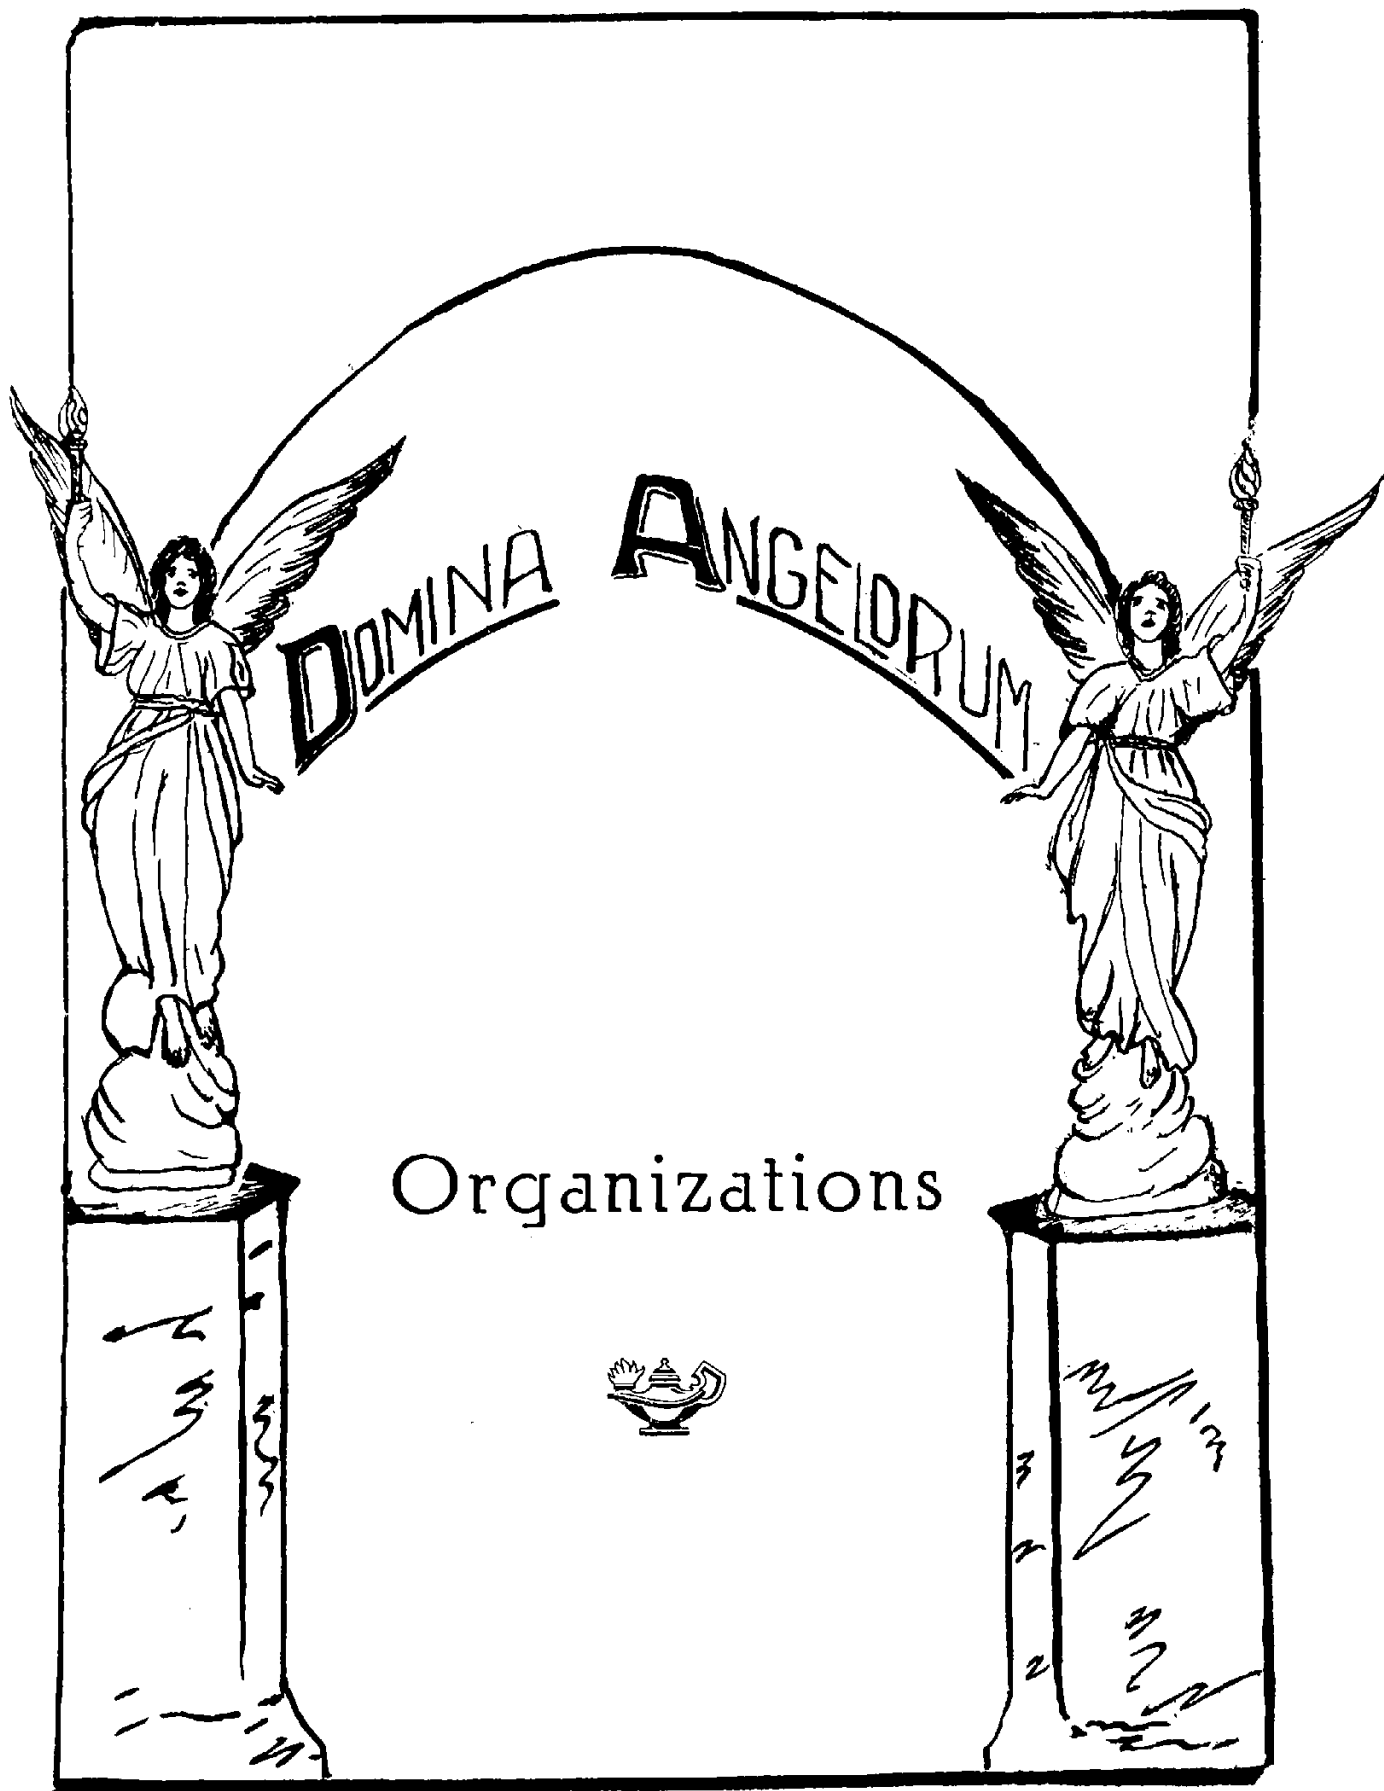

With courage he gathered his little band;
With courage they left their native land.
For many months they sought in vain,
Their number lessened by the slain.
But now at last the foe they met,
In dark defiles with dangers set.

They struggled, they fought, and many fell.
Sir Malcolm knew that all was not well.
The foe escaped and onward fled,
The pursuing band left many dead.
Sir Malcolm was now alone with a Turk—
Oh, help him God, for dangers lurk.

The Turk held the Grail. Sir Malcolm knew
To rescue this was his to do.
With mighty strength they fought, the twain;
Nor unfair advantage did the Turk disdain.
His call brought men, a band of four.
Sir Malcolm slew two. Could he do more?

The Holy Cup! Yes, help him God!
Again he rose from the blood-soaked sod.
And then just as the prize was taken,
The knight fell back, ne'er more to waken.
Of his success he never knew,
For at God's throne his soul was due.

Religious Council

The Religious Council functioning for the twofold purpose of maintaining a high degree of fervor for things Catholic in the personal lives of the students and for the spread of God's kingdom on earth, has been very active during this scholastic year. The whole-hearted cooperation of the student body has made it possible for the Council to accomplish some worth-while achievements.

FIRST FRIDAY

The slogan "The Sacred Heart for the world, the world for the Sacred Heart" has not been a meaningless phrase with us. An average of ninety-seven per cent of the students faithfully honored the Sacred Heart on the First Friday by the reception of Holy Communion.

SODALITY

Parish Moderators have also been busy striving to have their individual parish sodalities interested and active in parish affairs.

C. S. M. C.

"Mary, Queen of the Apostles, pray for the missions that all may know the Savior of the world." With this official prayer of the crusade our enthusiastic president, Geraldine Rendler, opened the monthly meetings of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade. Her timely and spirited messages always found receptive minds and willing hearts to carry out the plans by which God's work among the poor might be furthered.

PAPER DRIVE

Little bundles,—big bundles,—fat bundles,—round bundles,—bundles,—bundles. Bundles of what? For what purpose? Bundles of paper for the big paper drive, the proceeds of which are to be used for the home missions.

CHRISTMAS FOR GOD'S POOREST

That it is far sweeter to give than to receive was experienced at Christmas time when our mission activity lent itself to making "merry" for the poor colored children of St. Anthony school. Days were spent in preparation and anticipation. Dolls were dressed, toys gathered, goodies prepared, and everything that goes to make a Merry Christmas for children. At last the eventful day came and—Who did I say had the Merry Christmas? Ah, it is sweeter to give than to receive.

"How popular am I with God?" "Am I Modern?" "On Parade", "Can You Take It?" "Chords and Dischords"—These and many other stirring talks by the Rev. Father Romuald, O.F.M., moved us to reflect deeply on the one thing necessary. Shall we ever forget Retreat, March 7, 8, 9, 1934? Our Lord was truly with us those three holy days as our auditorium was transformed into a beautiful chapel where Mass and Benediction were held daily.

MAY DAY

"Bring flowers of the fairest, Bring flowers of the rarest,"

thus sings the choir as devoutly the procession wends its way to the bower where "Mary, our Queen" is crowned. Truly the First Friday in May is Mother Mary's day.

—Lorraine Hungler, Secretary, '34.

"The monthly meeting of the Student Council is called to order," states the president in a strictly business-like voice. Thereupon, the secretary checks the presence of the thirty-two members, representatives from each individual class. After the reading of the minutes, the meeting proper proceeds.

"The sole purpose of this assembly," continues the president, "is to inform the students of its functions; namely, to aid in enforcing the regulations made by the faculty and to establish a medium by which students may express their sentiments."

In order to carry out the first design in a more helpful and simplified manner, reminders in the form of posters have been erected from time to time. The letters of "warning" and the Student Council Court also played a prominent part in lessening the offenses.

Open discussions during the meetings enabled the representatives to be granted the same "freedom of speech" as in the great House of Representatives.

The Student Council badges were in prominence as the annual P. T. A. social. Some of the members acted as ushers, others sold tickets and chances, and still others were in readiness to lend a helping hand wherever it was needed.

In like manner throughout the year the Student Council has always contributed its services toward all of the school activities.

Thus in attempting to fulfill the purpose of the Student Council, we have succeeded in helping to retain the discipline, as well as the morals of the school.

EVER GLAD NATURE CLUB

Taught by St. Francis, "Brother Joy," himself, to call the flowers sisters and the beasts brothers, it is no wonder that we, children of joy, should choose the joyous Saint as patron of our nature club.

With St. Francis, we desire to behold God mirrored in His creatures—the plants, the birds, the beasts. We wish His unseen presence to speak to us not only in the sublime grandeur of creation, but also in the lowliest of His creatures.

*"It is not only in the rose,
It is not only in the bird,
Not only where the rainbow glows,
Nor in the song of woman heard,
But in the darkest, meanest things
There always, always, something sings."*

The Ever Glad Nature Club opened its ears to the song and with as many voices as we are members took up and repeated it ourselves. You will find us singing it evermore.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

Seniors taking the Secretarial Training course make up the personnel of this club.

The year has been an active one. Visits were made to business offices, to banks, and to the federal building. Here the post office, the weather bureau, the law library, the federal courts, and the civil service department, together with several offices were a part of the tour.

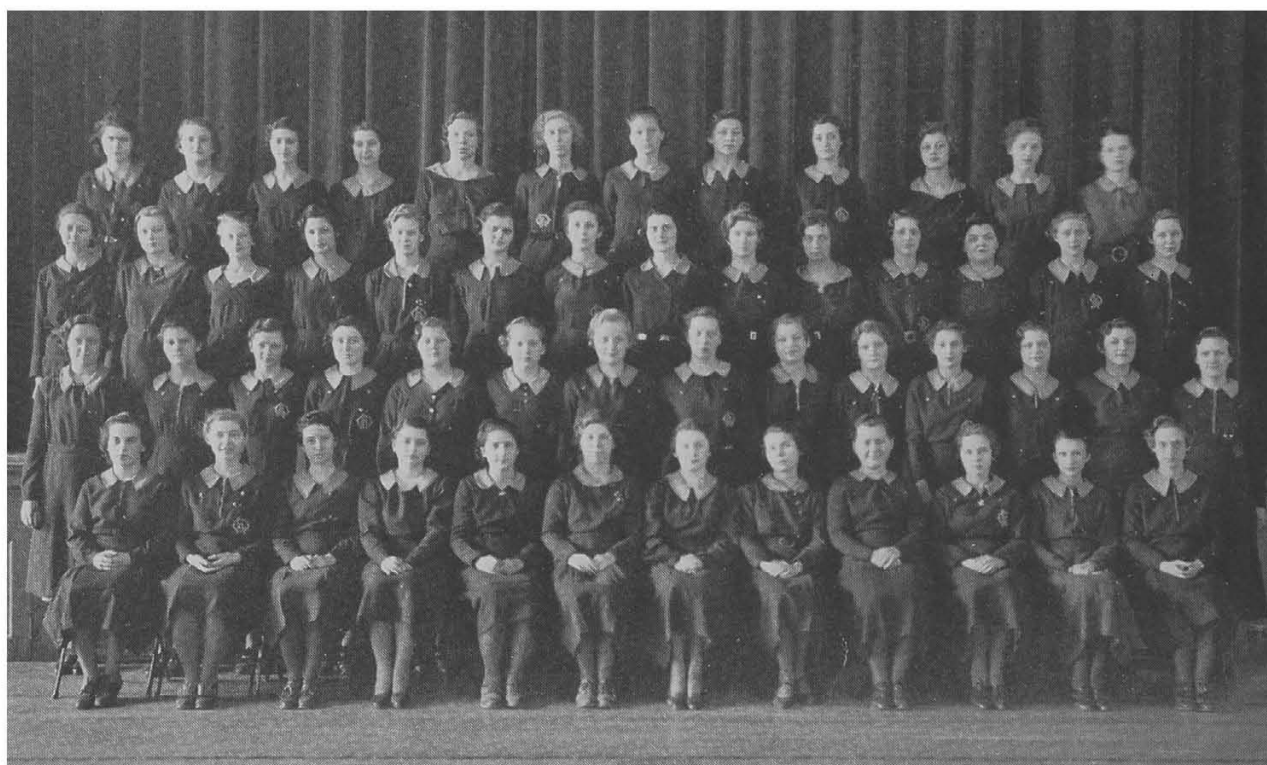

This club's pet activity was the publishing of Inklings, the school paper. After the material contributed by the various groups in the school was assembled, the club's duty was to arrange the material, to select appropriate drawings, to prepare the stencils, to mimeograph them, to assemble the copies, to make out the bills, to distribute to the classrooms the copies with bills attached, and to collect the bills. This has given the girls a splendid opportunity to become proficient office workers—an aim which is, of course, the goal of each member.

At its monthly meetings business papers were read and discussed. A special study in commercial law was continued from one meeting to the next.

Officers: Marian Otto, president; Ruth Boerger, vice president; Pearl Herrmann, secretary; Dolores Daley, treasurer, and Elizabeth Burroughs, auditor.

VIF MUSICIANS CLUB ACTIVITY

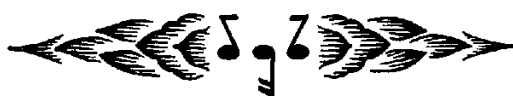

Is our club name appropriate? Only consider that the word "Vif" means lively, and you will know that we could not have chosen a more fitting name for this club. That our activities are in constant demand, is shown in the yearly record of the Inklings.

Vif Musicians found open avenues for their activities in contributing Yuletide cheer. Ours was the Christmas treat to visit various charitable institutions, with enlivening strains, to add to social affairs at affiliated parishes, and to entertain at the monthly P. T. A. meetings, here at Our Lady of the Angels. Of the nine hundred contestants in the Cincinnati Post Music Contest, thirty were members of the Vif Musicians Club. Twenty-five Vif Musicians were eligible for the semi-finals and eleven for the finals. The contralto, Virginia Bottenhorn, won the silver medal award.

Girls Week gave us another opportunity to compete with musicians. We are happy to announce the following winners: Original Piano Compositions, first prize, Betty Jane Bangert; second prize, Helen Listerman and Betty Winston. Music Projects, first prizes to Emily Ann Burman and Catherine Jacquemin; second prize to Mary Alice Keller, and the third prize to Ruth Kleiner.

Although I regret leaving the Vif Musicians Club, I am happy to have the opportunity of joining the Cecilian Club and of thus being able to continue my associations with Vif members.

The Mothers' Club met at school every first Friday of the year to carry on their loyal work.

The Mothers' Club chaperoned the Christmas dance.

The Mothers' Club knew the financial needs of the school. They scored the triumph of their zeal in the work they did for the February social.

The Mothers' Club gave the curtain and drapes for our stage.

The Mothers' Club thrilled with the enthusiasm of Girls' Week at the Hobby Fair. They provided conveyances to take our musicians and their instruments to the building, and had ready there refreshments to regale the musical entertainers.

The Mothers' Club sponsored the Boat Ride with all the pleasures attendant to a ride down the Ohio.

The Mothers' Club, now, we pray, receive the grateful thanks of every daughter, every pupil of O. L. A.

—HENRIETTA BERNARD, '34.

ANTONIA DREER GUILD

Although the smallest organization of the school, the Antonia Dreer Guild numbers in its members young ladies whose devotion to the school makes their club one of the most valuable.

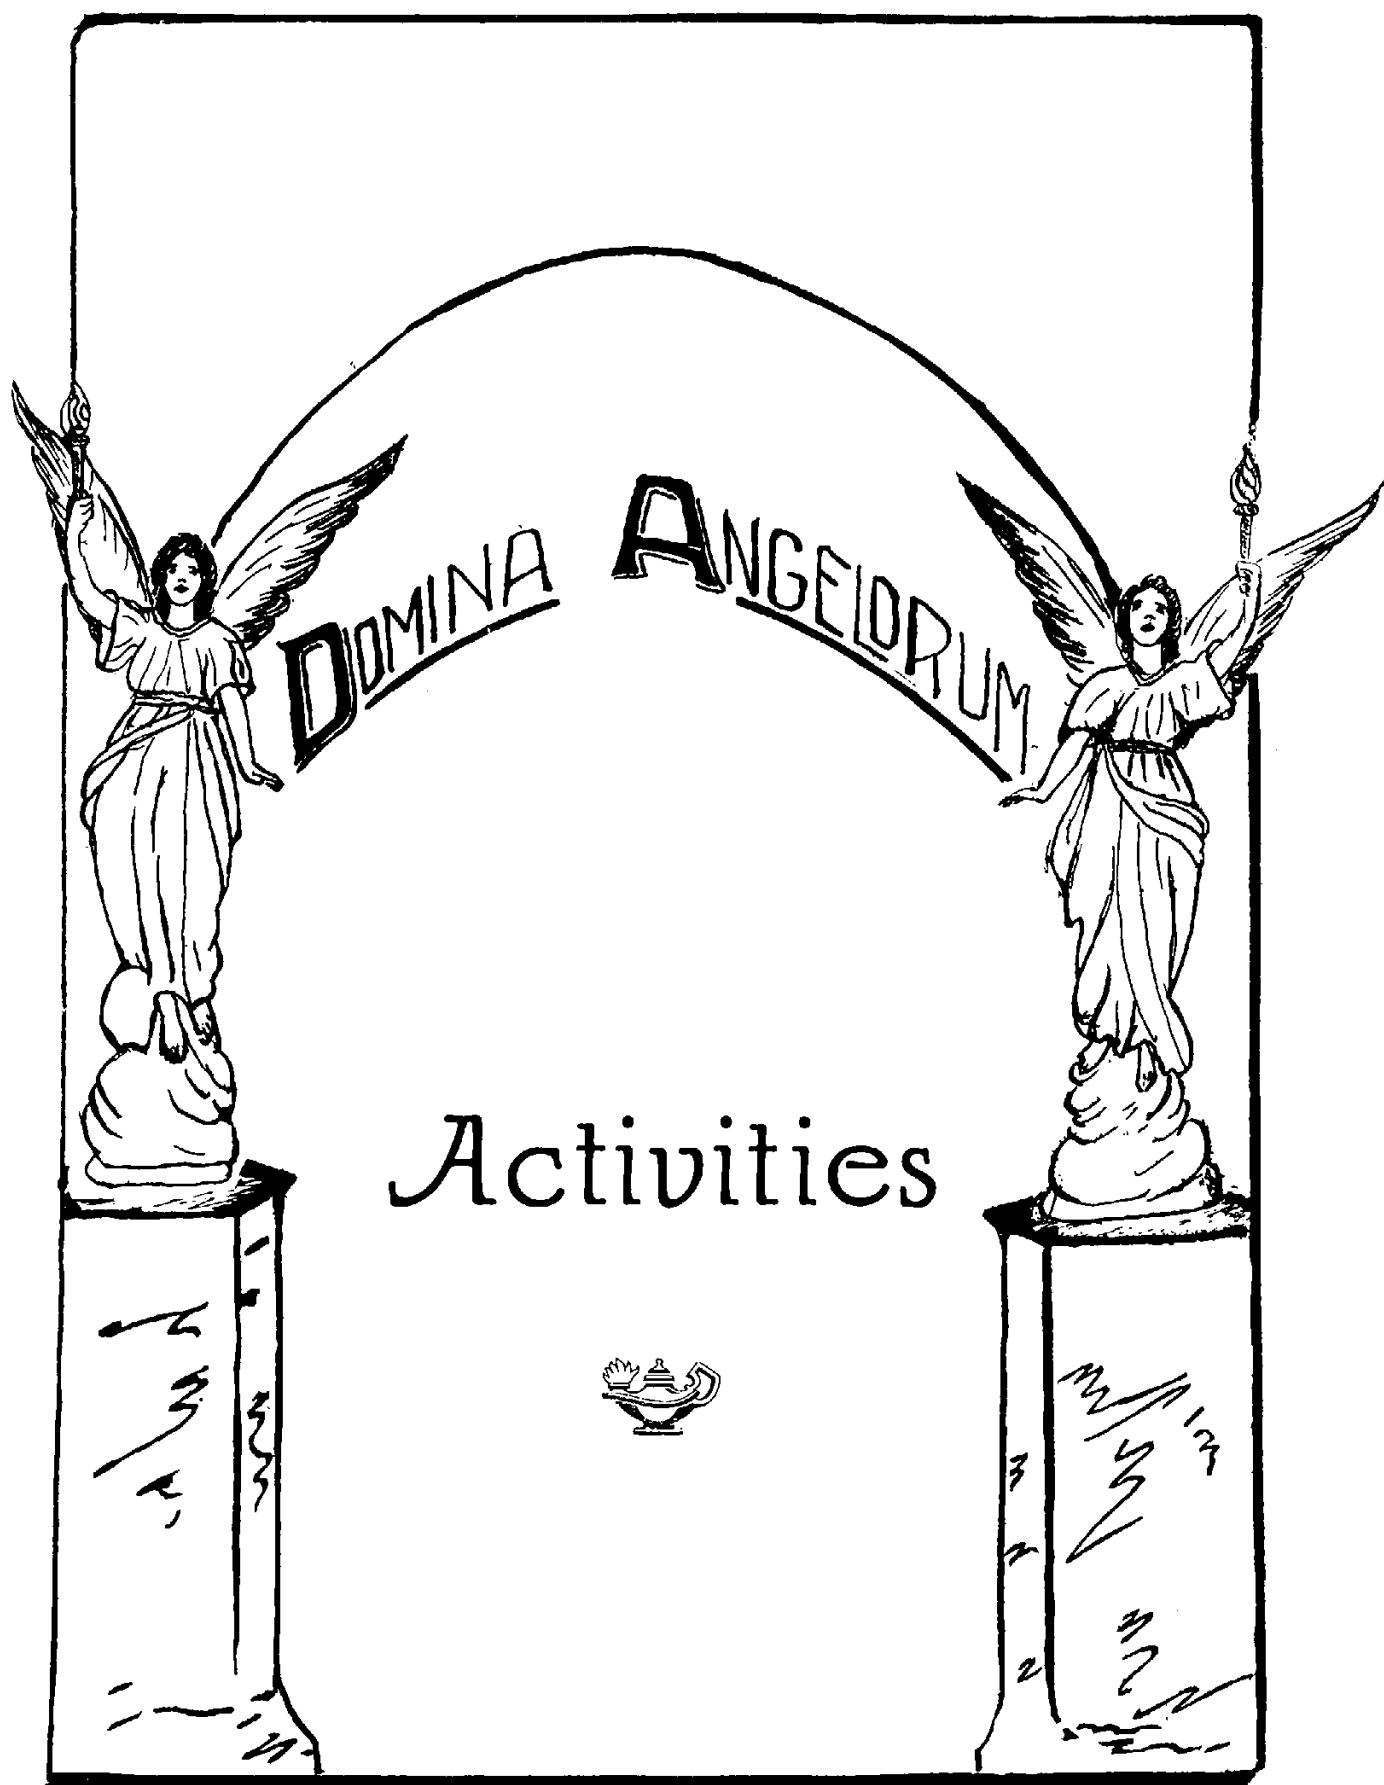

Monthly meetings are held in Room 1 at which educational, business, and social topics are discussed, followed by entertainment and refreshments.

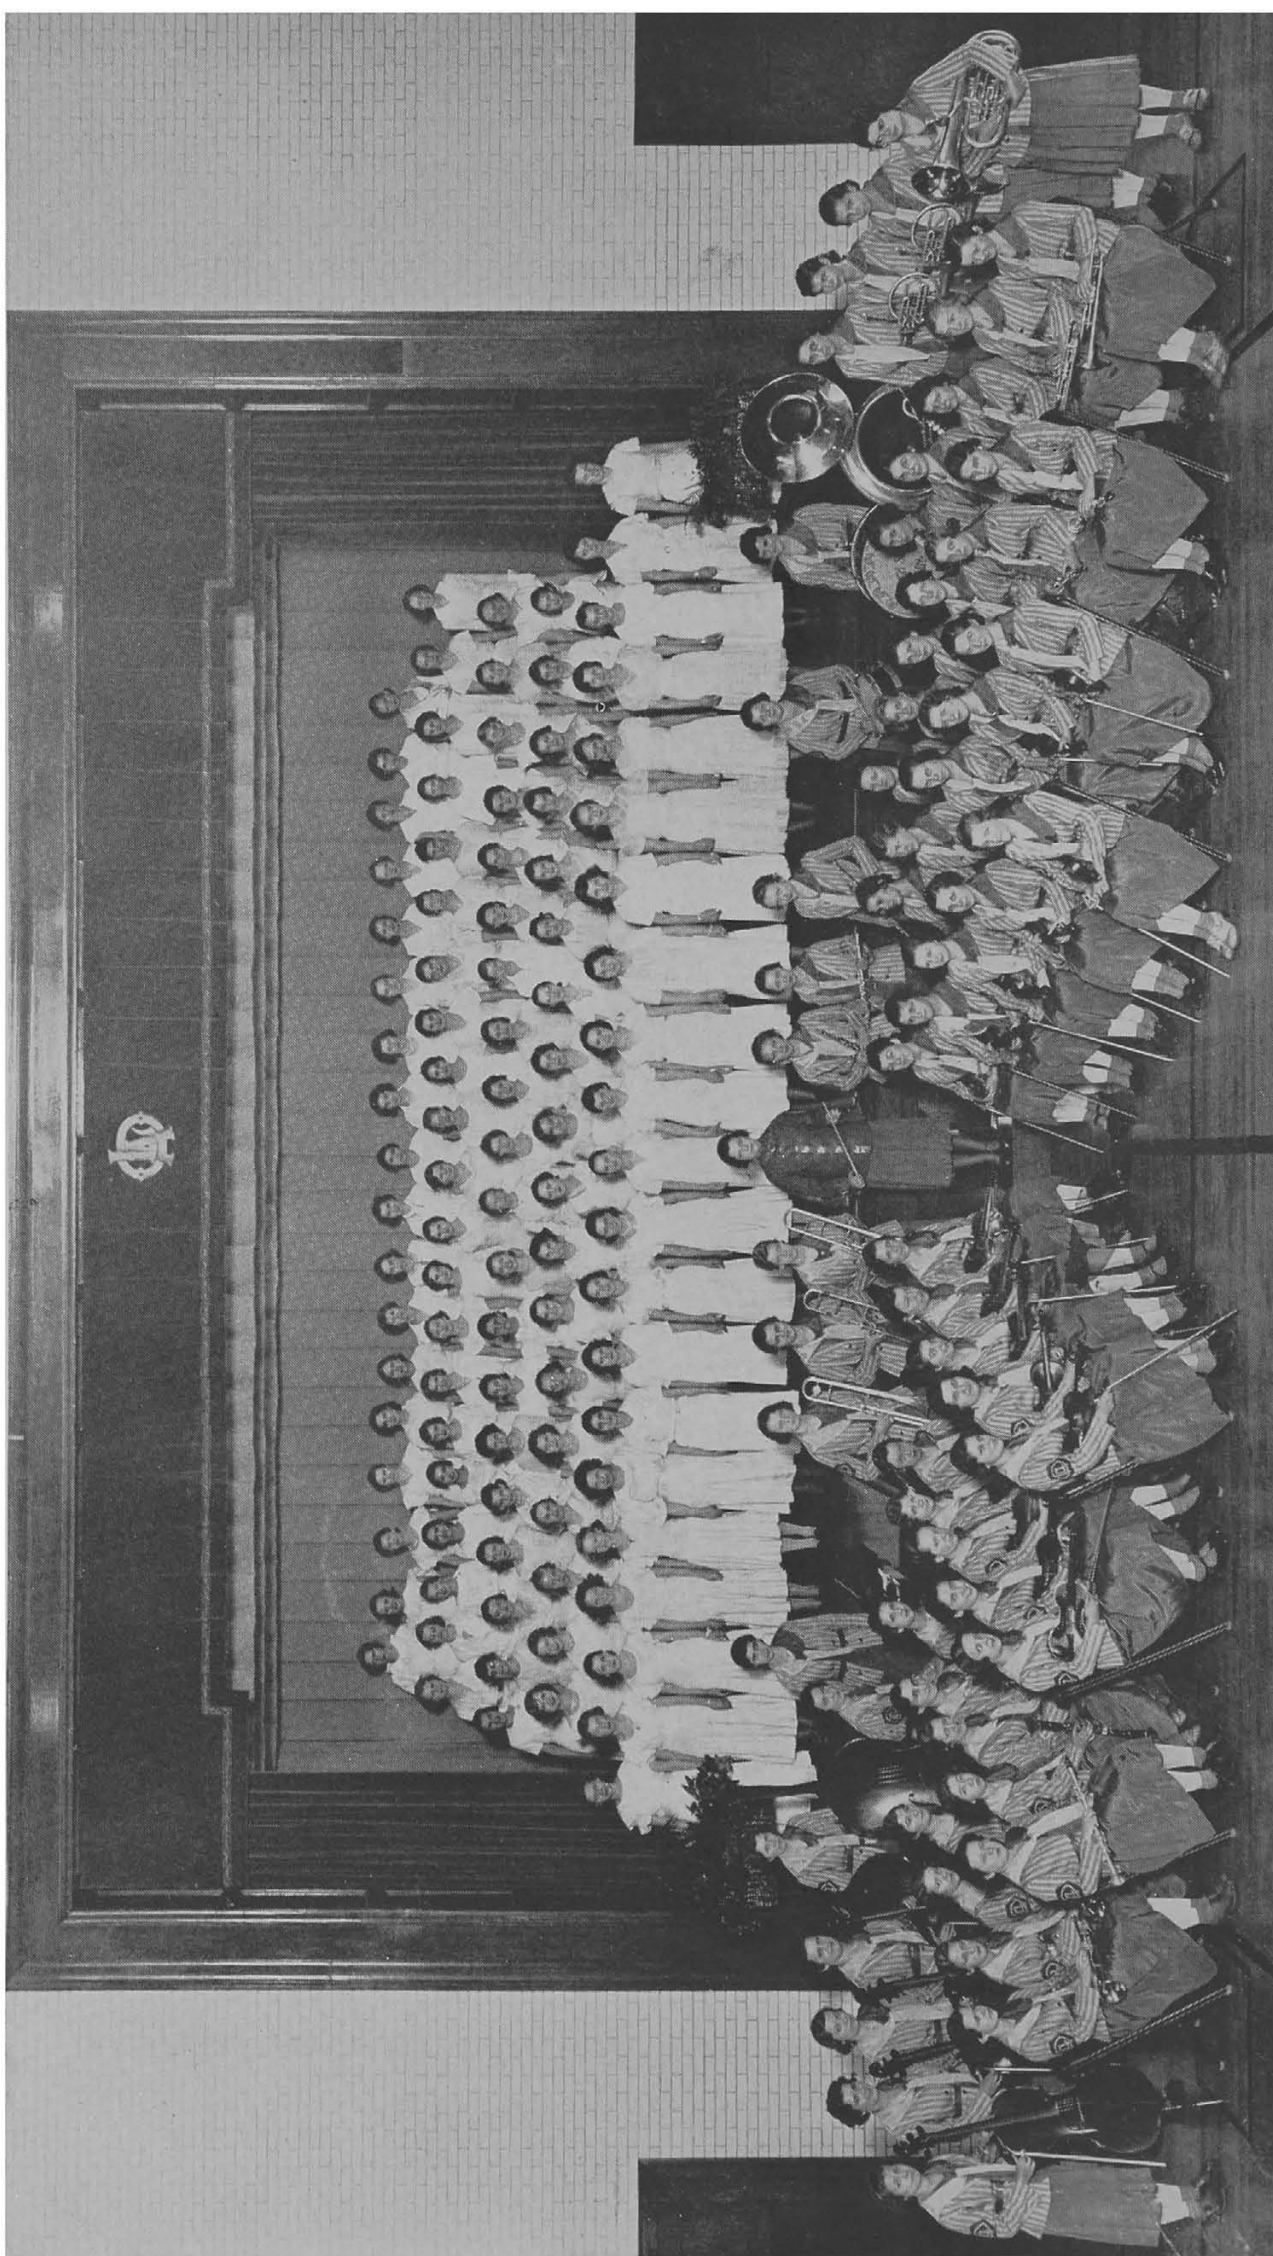

During the course of the year, the club held a very successful card party and donated one-half of the proceeds to the school.

Girls who attended O. L. A. but were unable to remain enrolled until graduation make up the membership of this club. The Guild invites all O. L. A. girls who do not return to school next September to register as members at the October meeting. This meeting is planned to be a social meeting for the new members.

Officers of the club are: Eva Closterman, president; Mary Kasselman, vice president; Rosella Ruhe, secretary; Irma Von Hagel, treasurer.

GLEE CHORUS AND ORCHESTRA

The Magic of Song

UR GLEE CLUB members, with smiling faces, stand a revelation of the wonderful magic of song. Shelley's saying that "Music, when soft voices die, vibrates in the memory," is no longer to us simply a line of a poem—it is the expression of our own realization. We heard the Glee Chorus sing "The Cake Shop Romance"—Osborne, and the "Big Brown Bear"—Mana Zucca, and the words sing on in our ears. The melodic charm of "Go, dear Music"—Elgar, and "Starlight"—Cross, react in our merry hearts, enkindling a joyousness that shines out through beaming countenances. The spirited "A Song of Victory"—Fletcher, with orchestral accompaniment, still thrills with its fascination.

Roused to greater interest by the inspiring work of the Glee Chorus, some members devote themselves to intensive voice study—these comprising the Solo Chorus. The Senior Class boasts of having nine girls in this select group. In the annual retreat this chorus group sang hymns during Holy Mass, a contribution that added inspiring devotion to the hearts of all the Retreatants. On other occasions the group gave an artistic rendition of "Lullaby"—Brahms; "Liebestraum"—Liszt, with 'Cello and Flute obligato; "God Touched the Rose"—Brown; "Springtime"—Mildenburg; and an operetta, "Friendship"—Lichthardt. In the latter the solo chorus was assisted by twelve members of the Glee Chorus.

To us our rehearsals are a real joy, for "He that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast." Like Chaucer's young Squire, to us, too, it would be a delight to be singing or fluting all the day.

—KATHERINE LEHRTER, '34.

ECHOES FROM THE ORCHESTRA

Softly the strains of music float through the building. It is the familiar tune of "Sweethearts" by Victor Herbert that we hear. We descend the stairs and the music grows clearer. Now it is the great and majestic Orpheus Overture. As we walk through the auditorium into the annex we find the orchestra members having their weekly rehearsal. They are fitting themselves to enkindle in others the fire of their own joy. They played for the Woman's National Exposition, Music Hall; Norwood Woman's Club, Alms Hotel, and the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae affairs; for the Golden Jubilee at the Convent, Oldenburg; for the Good Shepherd Convent, Fort Thomas, Kentucky; for the formal opening of Girls Week; for the P. T. A. Meetings, Recitals, the Class Play, and Class Night.

Of the Orchestra we may use Dryden's words:

*"The flying fingers touched the lyre;
The trembling notes ascend the sky
And heavenly joys inspire."*

—RUTH REICHARD, '34.

CECILIAN CLUB

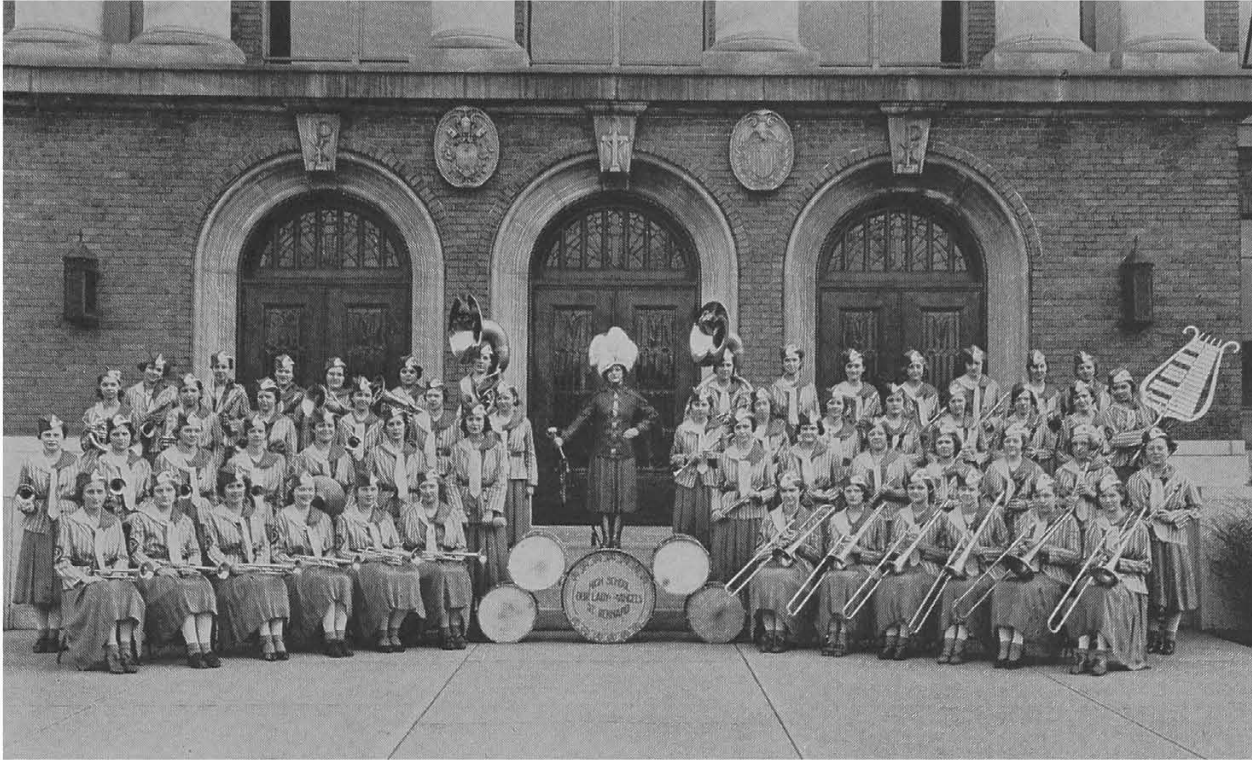

Forward! March! And to the time of the music so much appreciated and so long enjoyed as members of the Vif Musicians Club, senior members can now check their regret at leaving those musicians with whom they spent so many delightful hours, for the pleasure and good is offered us to enroll in the recently organized Cecilian Club.

Success in the Vif Musicians Club was due to hard labor and not mere chance. When graduation day came and the senior musicians were about to reap the fruit of their labors, the glory was cut short, their membership was at an end. What could be done? The regrets gave rise to the Cecilian Club for post-graduate members. Our new club was organized on St. Cecilia's Day and holds rehearsals every other Saturday afternoon. The bonds of friendship formed during the four years at school will continue to flourish and strengthen us both musically and socially.

Give it to St. Cecilia to find a harmonious way out of a difficulty. We sing our thanks to her in musical numbers.

—ROSEMARY MOELLER, '34.

Million Dollar Band

Is there any reason why we should not consider our band a "Million Dollar Band?" No, indeed! A band creates enthusiasm, and enthusiasm ensures success. The marching band has unlimited possibilities for good. The marching band goes to its audience and thereby carries its message to thousands who otherwise would not receive it. The marching band uplifts and gives decision, grit, energy, and the iron will to fight against obstacles.

Our band had the honor of entertaining Reverend Mother M. Clarissa on the occasion of her Golden Jubilee. To the strains of our music Reverend Mother Clarissa with other Golden and Silver Jubilarians, who were preceded by His Excellency Archbishop John T. McNicholas, bishops, monsignori, and many of the clergy, moved in procession to the celebration of the Golden Jubilee Mass.

In civic affairs we were happy to escort Governor George White, of Ohio; Mayor Russell Wilson, of Cincinnati, and other city officials. Each year we have had the privilege of formally opening Girls' Week at the Hobby Fair.

The joy and happiness I experienced in being Drum Major has been worth a million thrills to me. The honor of being Drum Major is given, each year, to a senior. To my successor I say: "Keep up the Million Dollar Standard."

—RUTH KLEINER, '34.

Dramatics

The Angele Dramatic Club is an organization limited to seniors. Membership in it has privileged us to take part in school entertainments, and in the much coveted right, a part in the Class Play.

"The Family Album"

Our first endeavor, "The Family Album," was our contribution toward Reverend Mother Clarissa's Golden Jubilee celebration at O. L. A. Pictures of the various stages in a girl's life were shown in pantomime while the orchestra played suitable numbers.

Characters taking part were:

Grandmother as a bride	RUTH FELIX
Mary, her daughter	ELAINE DWERTMAN
Mary and her lover	EDITH MERKT AND DOLORES SIEVE
Mary, a bride	EDITH LUKEN

Grandchildren:

MARY ALICE ANDREWS	ESTELLE TEN BRUNSEL
HELEN MILLET	MARY FUNCH

"The Truth Party"

The Parent-Teacher Association was next to be entertained by us at their annual Christmas party. "The Truth Party" is a playlet which proves that truth often hurts and that sometimes it is not wise to tell people what we honestly think of them. Those taking parts were:

Club Members:

MARGERY HEYOB, hostess	MARY KATHERINE ROMER
VIRGINIA BOTTENHORN	BARBARA HOLABACH
RUTH REICHARD	IDA MAE HALLORAN
LORAIN HUNGLER	VIRGINIA BERRY
LAVERNE HUNGLER	DOROTHY LEHN
JEAN BROTHERTON	DOROTHY ENGEL

Aunt Felicia Ramsey	MARY DESCH
Little Daughter	ELEANOR TOBIN

"Borrowed Luncheon"

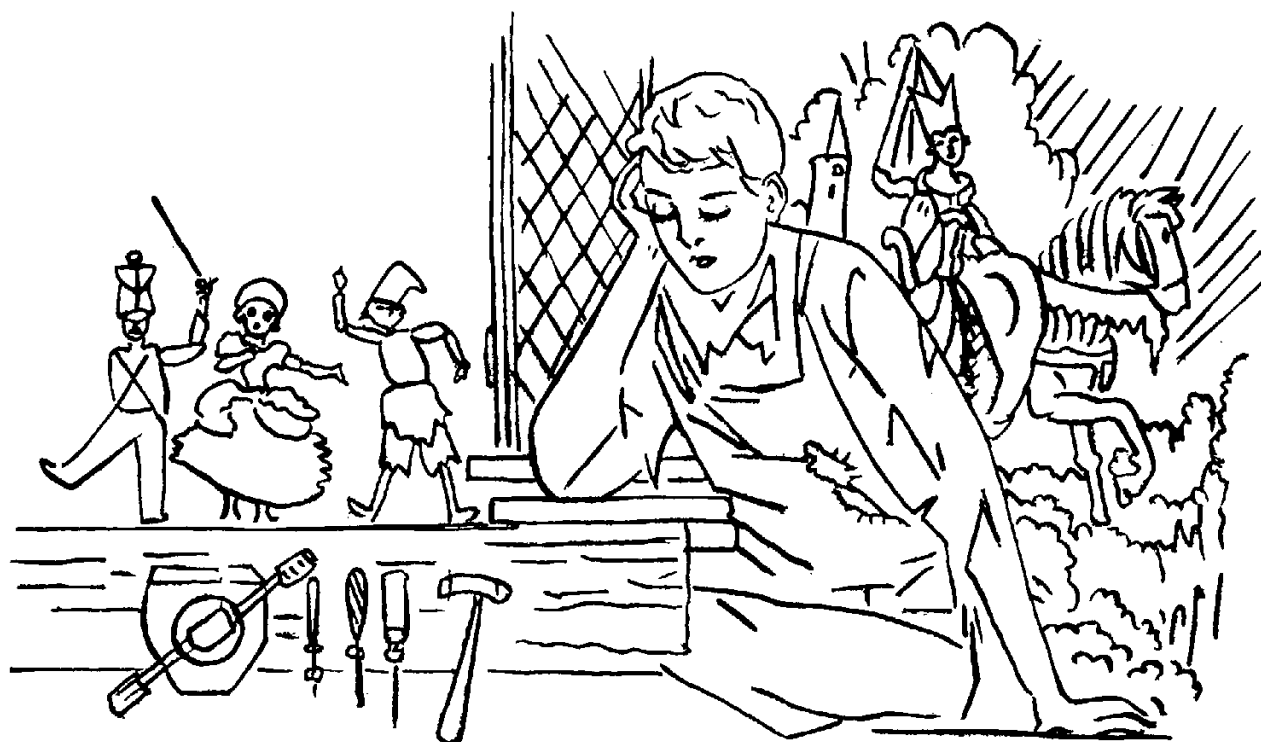

The one act comedy, "A Borrowed Luncheon," entertained the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John on the occasion of their installation of officers. The characters in the playlet were:

Mrs. Bancraft, with social aspirations	MARGARET HOHMAN
Mrs. McDougal, her wealthy friend	EDITH LUKEN
Mrs. Dixon, from Mrs. Bancraft's former home	GENEVIEVE KRUTHAUP
Marian, Mrs. Dixon's daughter	EVELYN JAEGER
Norah, Mrs. McDougal's maid	HELEN FELLHAUER

"Borrowed Luncheon" verifies Scott's words,

"O, what a tangled web we weave,
When first we practice to deceive."

"The Toymaker" -- the Class Play

All roads lead to Rome. In like manner, all dramatic activities of the year lead to the climax of the year's work, our Class Play. Fancy dolls and rag dolls, clowns and wooden soldiers, teddy bears and jack-in-the-box—yes, you actually meet all these in the Senior Class Play, "The Toymaker." This amusing operetta shows Toyland full of living creatures. Their talks, dances, and revels cause many hearty laughs. Of course, there is a Toymaker and a beautiful Princess who fall in love with each other. When the King promises her in marriage to the Toymaker who succeeds in making a toy that will satisfy his capricious little son, she secretly helps her lover to win the prize. The characters doing justice to the play are:

The Toymaker	VIRGINIA BOTTENHORN
An Old Woman, mother of the Toymaker	EDITH CASTELLI
The Princess	BETSY SCHMIDT
The King	MARGERY HEYOB
The Prince	EDITH STROBL
A Herald	DOROTHY ENGEL
The Best Doll	CLARE KEUPER
The Rag Doll	RUTH REICHARD
The Clown	KATHERINE LEHRTER
The Wooden Soldier	LORAIN HUNGLER

"The Day We Graduate"

Father Lord's play, "The Day We Graduate," is part of our closing exercises on Class Night. The play brings home to us the fact that we do not see ourselves as others see us. Graduates of years ago do not quite appreciate our jargon nor our sense of propriety. Our activities as underclassmen are pantomimed on one side of the stage and furnish a suitable summary of High School Life. The final scene shows Alma Mater surrounded by her eighty-eight graduates who with grateful hearts promise ever to be her faithful children. The characters as we meet them are:

Our First Communicants

Girls Athletic Association

President	MELBA VOLLNER
Vice-President	MILDRED SMITH
Secretary	RITA GASS
Treasurer	DOLORES SIEVE

This Association, ready to celebrate its second birthday, is steadily accomplishing its initial purpose of obtaining whole-hearted co-operation between the students and the Physical Education Department. All classes are kept in touch with the sport activities of the school through their class representative. The following were selected this year:

Senior A	Melba Vollner
Senior B	Dolores Sieve
Senior C.....	Regina Koehne
Junior A.....	Margaret Gruenwald
Junior B	Mathilda Farkas
Junior C	Mildred Smith, Rita Gass
Sophomore A.....	Sylvia Bottenhorn
Sophomore B	Florence Marazzi
Sophomore C.....	Mary Morrissey
Sophomore D.....	Helen Nolan
Freshman A.....	Florence Elsbrock
Freshman B	Ruth Hartman
Freshman C.....	Loraine Stoll
Freshman D.....	Anna Filusch

How many points have you for games? Did you hike one hundred miles this year? Have you the required number of points for swimming? Such questions as these are being daily asked by active and fun loving O. L. A. girls.

Special enjoyments of the year were a Thanksgiving party in the fall and a swimming party in the spring. Do you question our enjoying every minute in the Physical Education Department? With Miss Smethurst as director, it could not be otherwise.

—DOLORES SIEVE, '34.

Volley Ball

Interest in Volley Ball was aroused early this year. Girls practiced during the noon recess and became more enthusiastic after school. All the girls were privileged to try for the school team. Those who succeeded in making the team were: Melba Vollner, Mildred Smith, Margaret Bentz, Helen Meirose, Thelma Storrie, Martha Bosse, Dolores Siefert, Mary Agnes Brockmann, Emma Motz, Marguerite Gruenwald, Gladys Schaffeld, Margaret McEneny, and Mary Mollaun.

O. L. A. won the game played against Regina on November 17th, with a score of 50-27.

Strive for the same goal next year, girls!

The Volley Ball Tournament which held the interest of the school for several months was brought to a dramatic end by two very exciting games.

Sophomore D, after a hard fight, came out victorious in the Senior division and carried off the much coveted trophy. Freshman B, the champions of the Freshman division, are the proud possessors of a beautiful pennant.

—CATHERINE HEIDELMAN, '34.

Basket Ball

*"On, on, Ye Brave
Who march to glory"*

With this battle cry the basket ball contestants entered the combat for baskets. The team, because of wise direction and of faithful practice and co-operation on the part of the members, has been quite successful this season as the results of the games prove. On January 26 O. L. A. played the Highland school, our one loss—the score 31 to 6. The following Sunday we played St. Mary's, O. L. A. winning a well-earned game, 34 to 15. February 23 we played an interesting game with the girls from Oldenburg, a victory for O. L. A., 55-18. The return game with St. Mary's netted a final score of 24 to 18. On March 16 O. L. A. went glorious to Oldenburg and returned with a triumphant score, 28-16.

The members of the 1934 team and squad are as follows:

FORWARDS: Catherine HeideIman, Melba Vollner, Martha Bosse, Dolores Siefert, Virginia Ruwe, Thelma Storrie, Betty Brinkman, Helen Tierney.

GUARDS: Mildred Smith, Emma Motz, Helen Meirose, captain, Rita Gass, Jane Weyman, Gladys Schaffeld, Margaret Bentz, Margaret Hoeb, and Mary Agnes Brockmann.

Swimming

"Come on in, the water is fine." Experience for yourself the delight of swimming at O. L. A. and I know you will be a regular member of our group. No, I am not drumming up trade but I should like to share the pleasure of this delightful exercise with my friends.

The thirty energetic members of our class are working to be Junior or Senior Life Savers. We are proud of our Red Cross badges but happier still of our ability to swim and our power to rescue if need be.

The following are ready to take their Life-Saving Examinations:

SENIOR LIFE-SAVING: Regina Koehne, Annabelle Roth, Rita Streibig.

JUNIOR LIFE-SAVING: Margaret Schmidt, Emmy Lou Thuman, Betty Drees, Betty Thuman, Jane Searce, Virginia Matuska, Martha Bosse.

—REGINA KOEHNE, '34.

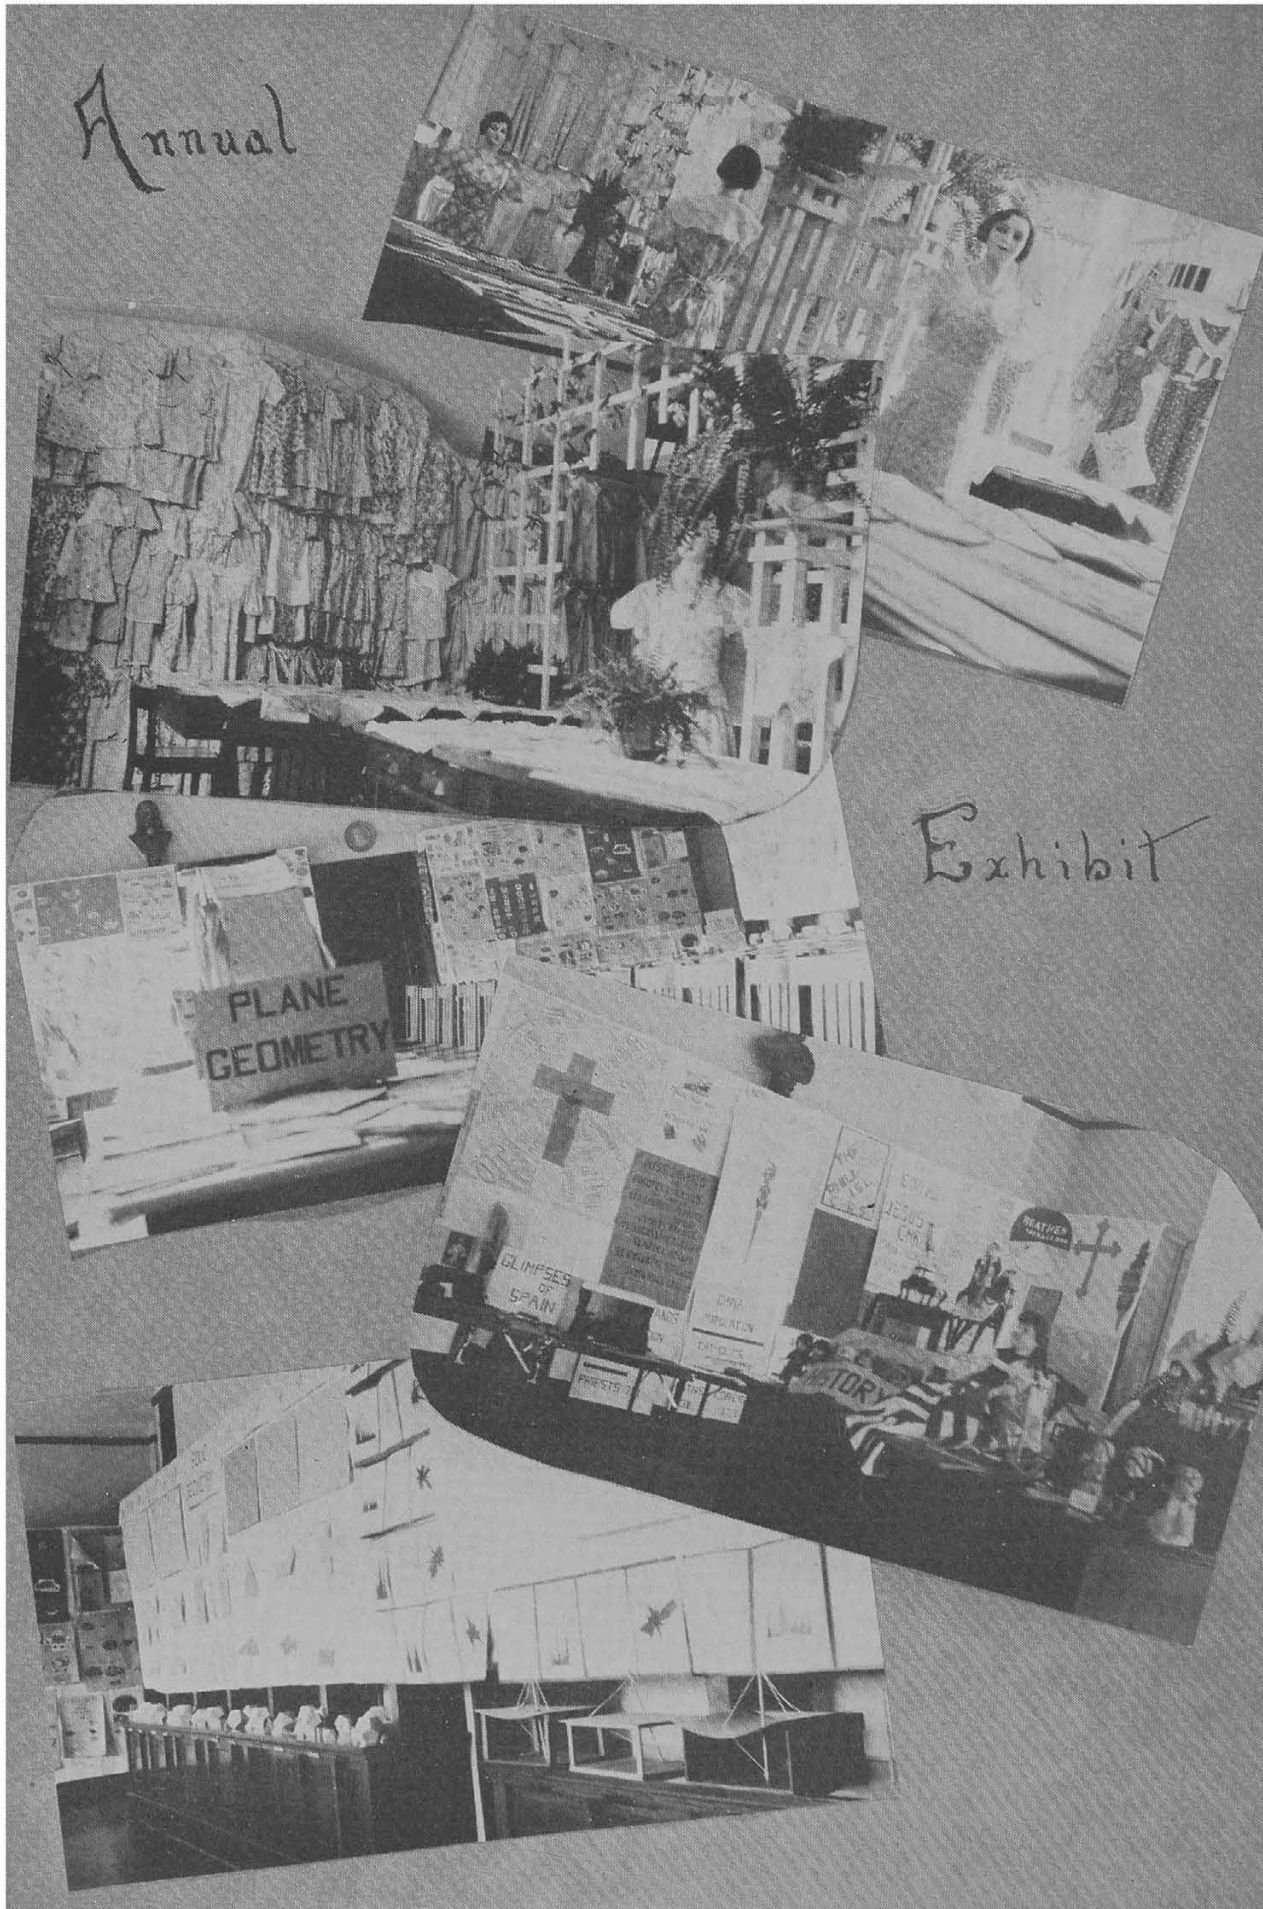

Tennis

Five-four, 40-love, game, set, tournament. With ears attentive we wait for the spring thrills that come not only with playing tennis but even with hearing the scores called out. The tennis groups of the Girls Athletic Association of O. L. A. are urged to be ready for the combats on our own court and for the contests with the affiliated Cincinnati associations.

O. L. A. has its goal set for a new tennis field, a macadamized court adjoining the gym. With this added urge to activity in the game O. L. A. players must be champions.

Inklings

Published by the Student Body of Our Lady of the Angels High School

Our school paper, "Inklings" took on an added glory this year. Without aid from the outside, the student body of O. L. A., under the guidance of the Senior Commercial students, turned out an all-school paper. "Inklings" carries no advertisements; "Inklings" is devoted entirely to school interests; "Inklings" is circulated only within the school. The contributions are wholly from the student body. The work from beginning to end, from the typing to the circulating is a school activity.

Would you see what skill was developed in writing class contributions? We would direct your attention to the four copies of the year. Enjoy again Anna McHugh's moral little story, Lucille Buzzuto's weird vision, Beatrice Wiesman's orphan tale, and Ruth Gude's chemical romance. Would you smile again at school-girl poesy? Re-read the attempts at versification made by both the Beck sisters, by Mary Jane Kappner, by Emily Ann Burman, and by Marie Holthous. Would you have your girlish difficulties settled? Helen Listerman's page of Dorothy Dix can do so.

Our admiring congratulations go to the contributors all; to the typists, the artists, the girls who stenciled, and the girl who mimeographed. Our heartfelt praise is to each student whose name was repeated on the honor roll in each issue.

Let us add here a note of sincere appreciation to our teachers all for their many helpful suggestions. Let us thank here our beloved Principal, Sister Mary Lawrence, for her quarterly page of instruction and for her constant words of encouragement.

—MARTHA ASBROCK, '34.

Senior Distinctions

Our Seniors are well represented in Orchestra, Band, Glee Chorus, and in Clubs. They play various musical instruments. They lead the school as singers. They win prizes for art and needlecraft. They know how to cook. Yes, they win prizes for their cooking. What about these Seniors as students? What is their scholastic achievement? A study of this page will be most convincing to even the most skeptical.

The Hobby Fair

The Girls' Hobby Fair came with its lure for display, lure for achievement, and lure for success. Last year's victory of the Loving Cup proved a further incentive to strive again this year. To the glory of Our Lady of the Angels be it said, we won the greatest number of points in the High School Division—209, the greatest number of first awards.

Formal presentation of the Cup was made in General Assembly by Mrs. Ascherenka, Hobby Fair Chairman of the Women's Organization of Public Recreation Commission. With grateful appreciation and with ringing cheers the school received the special commendation with which Mrs. Ascherenka so graciously presented the prize Cup to the President of the Senior Class. In the name of the school President Margery Heyob responded:

"In the name of Our Lady of the Angels High School, I gratefully accept the beautiful Hobby Fair Cup.

We consider it a great honor to have merited for the second time the much coveted prize.

In the name of the school, therefore, I wish to express the thanks of each pupil.

In our exhibits we have tried to show what our school has trained us to do and we hope that our successors will make it possible for the school to continue its record of achievement."

Our Own Once Over

INITIATION

The first Senior social function of the year was the Big Sister party with which they followed up the Initiation of the Freshmen.

RINGS AND PINS

Thrills! Thrills! The Seniors were gleaming with their class rings, the Juniors were dazzling with their class pins.

OURSELVES IN THE ANNUAL

"Oh me!" "Oh my!" "Look here!" "Let's see!" And with beaming smiles but depreciating words each Senior picked out her own picture from the proofs for the Annual brought in by the photographer.

JUBILEE ECHOES

A hush of expectancy followed the festal program presented in the auditorium to prolong the joyous echoes of Reverend Mother Clarissa's Golden Jubilee celebration. Mother rose to acknowledge in gracious words the added joy Our Lady of the Angels' mothers and daughters gave to her already joyous festivity.

RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS

The past year added ten O. L. A. students to those who entered the religious life: Marie Castelli, Mary Rose Hoffman, Clara Ward, Adele Schroeder, Marie Wernsing, Malvina Goyette, Magdalen Ballman, Esther Dwenger, Martha Dillhoff, and Beatrice Spesak. "Keep us in your prayers" is our prayer to each of them.

BOOK DRIVE

"Thank you for the assistance you have given us." These are the words in which Father Carl Ryan, Dean of the Athenaeum, expressed his thanks for the 500 volumes Our Lady of the Angels gathered in the week's book drive for the Athenaeum.

INQUIRY CLASS

At the suggestion of His Excellency, the Most Reverend John T. McNicholas, O. P., S. T. M., and under the auspices of the Rev. Dr. E. Freking, Our Lady of the Angels was established as one of the archdiocesan centers for the religious instruction of women. The primary purpose for the establishment of these religious centers is to bring non-Catholics into the Church. Associated objectives are to extend a knowledge of Catholic faith and Catholic practices among non-Catholic women, and likewise to satisfy the questionings of inquiring Catholics.

The establishment of the Inquiry Class is the answer to the Holy Father's call for Catholic Action. Our own center, with classes conducted every Friday night, has met with wonderful success during the short period of its existence. May the lavish graces of Our Lady, Queen of Apostles, bless this truly great missionary work.

CROWNING OF THE MAY QUEEN

Acting on their customary privilege, the Juniors chose for the crowning of the May Queen the senior, Geraldine Rendler. Amid acclamations the news was joyously received by the school.

EXHIBITS

The annual exhibit of art and needle work is scheduled for May 10 to 15. See the attractive display of things beautiful and things useful.

CLASS NIGHT

"The last day is come," not "the day of inevitable doom," but the day of glorious triumph. Garbed in cap and gown the Seniors stand before the school, the Graduates of 1934. The Juniors are introduced as prospective Seniors.

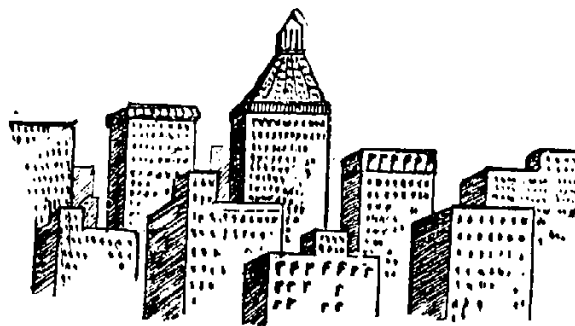

—ANNA LOUISE SWEENEY, '34.
