

The Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of Our Lady of the Angels High School of St. Bernard, Ohio

In the Name of God, Amen:

We, the members, individually and collectively, of the Senior Class of Our Lady of the Angels High School, being fully conscious and appreciative of the many blessings that have been bestowed upon us by reason of our privilege of four years of study within the walls of our beloved school, and realizing that the time is short when we must say farewell to those we love and esteem so highly, the dear Sisters who have through patience, forbearance and sympathy toiled so unceasingly for us, that we might be better equipped to withstand the trials and tribulations that may fall to our lot in after life, and knowing full well that their efforts have been unselfish and devoted, we do hereby give, devise and bequeath as follows:

Item I. To Sister Mary Lawrence, our dearly beloved principal, the guiding influence of our school in all that is scholarly, ladylike, genteel, and good, we give and bequeath our unbounded devotion, respect, and love, and trust that our heartfelt thanks and prayers may reach to heaven, that those who follow us may benefit as we have, through her unceasing guidance and influence, and we trust that the fruits of her labor will be visited upon others in the years to come as it has been during our years.

Item II. To the faculty of Our Lady of the Angels High School we give and bequeath, in all humbleness of spirit, and with a full consciousness of all the burdens we have been to our dear Sisters, our pledge of never-ending fealty and respect, and do earnestly pray that our successors may enjoy all the advantages that we have been privileged to obtain.

Item III. To the Juniors, we give and bequeath the desks, chalk and other incidentals to long and arduous years of study; also the small curtains to be used in Rooms 1 and 2.

Item IV. To the Sophomores, we give and bequeath our record of splendid achievement as a star to which they may pin their hopes and expectations.

Item V. To the Freshmen, we give and bequeath our dignity.

Item VI. To the school we bequeath, as a worthy remembrance from the Class of 1933, the painting, "Our Lady of the Angels," which will in due time adorn the north side of the lobby.

Item VII. We hereby appoint Catherine Early executrix of this, our last will and testament, and direct that no bond shall be necessary for the faithful execution of the trust.

In Testimony Whereof, we have hereunto set our names at Our Lady of the Angels High School of St. Bernard, Ohio, this first day of June, 1933.

Signed: Lucille Brausch,
Anna Pater,
Mercedes Weinberg.

The foregoing instrument was signed by the several Seniors whose names appear above, in our presence, and was by them declared to be the last will and testament of the Senior Class of Our Lady of the Angels High School of St. Bernard, Ohio.
