Through the study of Biology, we, the members of the Ever-Glad Nature Club, have been introduced into a new world—the world of living things. We have been given an insight into the way in which organisms live, their dependence upon one another and upon the physical world. We have learned that science and service are synonymous terms.

In the study of nature, the life of St. Francis has been a source of inspiration to us. In every creature he saw the great Creator, a kind, loving Father. Every flower, bird, and beast served to draw his heart upwards. This feeling about nature infused Francis with a constant joy in God, so that he was named "Brother Ever-Glad."

The Ever-Glad Nature Club has chosen its name to honor St. Francis, who in all creatures saw the endless tenderness of the Creator. We, too, shall endeavor to become more interested in the beauties of Nature, which reflect God's Presence among His creatures.

The Commercial Club

President	Mildred Boehm
Vice-President	Lillian Gleeson
Secretary	Lucille Cevardo
Treasurer	Ruth Schaefer

The Commercial Club consists of forty girls, forty who contribute their best efforts to make the club a success. All are members of the office training class.

The meetings are held once a month. The purpose of the meetings is to make the girls better acquainted with the business office. Papers on business topics are read.

Another activity of the club is the printing of the school paper, "Inklings." A committee appointed at the meeting stencil and mimeograph the papers and later fasten them together in book form.

Visiting business offices has been among the pleasures of this club.
